

GAME OF THRONES SEASON 5

Scott Shima

This sketch contains spoilers for Game of Thrones. All acting should be done way overacted and exaggerated.

NARRATOR

Last season on Game of Thrones...

A 30 second overly dramatic recap of everything that happened on the previous season highlighting the Red Wedding, Joffrey's death, Sansa pushing her aunt through the moon roof, etc plays.

A text overlay comes across the screen reading: Writer of the popular Game of Thrones books, George R.R. Martin, has turned over full creative content to the writers of Drake and Josh, The Suite Life of Zach and Cody, and Dog with a Blog to bring you this season of Game of Thrones. Viewer discretion is advised.

An uplifting Disney-esque pop song plays, showing clips from the previous seasons of 'Game of Thrones.'

Enter BRAN Stark, now played by Zach from the Suite Life of Zach and Cody. BRAN is still crippled from season 1 and enters crawling but is unsuccessful. He is inside the Heart Tree where the previous season left off.

Cue: Laugh Track

INT. Heart Tree at the end of Season 4.

Enter Meera Reed, now played by Jessie from Disney's Jessie.

MEERA

Well where's Hodor when you need him?

BRAN

Probably out saying something like "hodor" (in a really campy impression).

Cue: Laugh Track

BRAN

Meera, I need to find a date to the 7th dance.

MEERA

Isn't this advice you should be getting from your dad?

BRAN

Well, he's dead.

MEERA

Well ask your mom.

BRAN

She's dead.

MEERA

You have any brothers?

BRAN

He's dead too.

Cue: Laugh Track

MEERA

Well, all you need to do is just be fly.

BRAN

Well the old man did say I was going to fly.

MEERA

It was a metaphor, stupid.

Cue: Laugh Track

BRAN

Oh, so the visions with the three-eyed raven was all a metaphor? What's a metaphor?

Cue: Laugh Track

MEERA

Ugh, you are so stupid.

BRAN

I got an idea--hold on.

BRAN crawls away and returns with a mustache on.

Cue: Laugh Track

MEERA

What's that going to do?

BRAN

You said to be fly like Little Finger right?

MEERA

No, he was saying you were going to do great things.

BRAN

Oh. I thought you meant to be fly like how my aunt Lysa Arryn flew out the moon roof. Hence the mustache.

Cue: Laugh Track

MEERA

No you idiot!

Cue: Laugh Track

BRAN

Oh, okay hold on. I'll be right back.

Bran crawls away and returns with his direwolf. The direwolf is now played by a regular dog painted white.

MEERA

Okay, this is a step up.

BRAN

Look, he has a blog. Pretty fly right?

Cue: Laugh Track.

MEERA

You mean like the hit Disney show on every weekday from 4 PM to 6 PM called Dog with a Blog?

BRAN

Yeah!

MEERA

No you idiot! That's the most ridiculous show I've ever heard of. Who the fuck thought Dog with a Blog was a good title! Just like all the other Disney shows including the ABC titles like Blackish and #selfie. You can't do anything right, just like the writers from Disney! My idiot brother died because of you!

Bran's eyes then go completely white like when he is able to control animals or Hodor. He is now the three-eyed raven that he sees in his dreams and flies into the heart tree.

BRAN (AS THE BIRD)

I'm doing it. I'm doing it!

Enter Hodor, played by the same actor Kristin Narin who is a giant mentally challenged character who only is able to say his name, smashes the bird between his hands.

HODOR

Hodor.

MEERA

Oh Hodor.

Cue: Laugh Track.

Blackout.
