

Subject: Don't miss out on potential customers

Hello Jeff,

I noticed you developed Tailwind for the Leadville 100 race. Impressive work!

While exploring the Tailwind website, I saw your company offers a newsletter. However, the visibility of it could be enhanced. A thought crossed my mind: what if there was a captivating landing page designed to draw people in?

Big nutrition companies like SIS and 4-endurance do this. It gets them great results. I am sure you want that to.

If you're interested, I'd be delighted to create a landing page for your compan

Best regards,

Žan
