

DISTRICT WEBSITE

All computer programs, data files, and/or software creations of any description which reside on district computers and/or storage media are subject to review by district personnel. Guidelines for the development and upkeep of a World Wide Web Page for Blair Community Schools are:

1. No link or page may be employed for commercial or advertising purposes in violation of Board Policy 1005.10 and 1005.20
2. No link or any material should violate the rights of others
3. Soliciting sales, advertising, selling a service or posting an advertisement to a news group are considered to be in violation of the school's agreement with its service provider and is strictly prohibited.
4. Anyone who violates any of these rules will be notified that the links to their web pages will be removed. Violators must update page content to be in compliance with school policies in order to have links to their pages reactivated.
5. Unlawful or inappropriate use of any school hardware or software and any web page linked to the school server will be subject to appropriate disciplinary procedures of Blair Community Schools. Any student or employee of the school who violates this policy is subject to the appropriate disciplinary procedures of Blair Community Schools.
6. Names or photographs of students may be included unless otherwise requested by a parent or guardian. NO addresses or phone numbers or personal information will be published.
