

BlueTashi's Terms of Service:

By commissioning me, you automatically agree to all the terms listed below!

Last updated: 02-05-2026

- Payment for a commission is to be made in full once the commission is accepted by both parties, and work will not be started until the commission has been paid for.
- All work is to be paid for using PayPal, and directly from the client. Third party payers will not be accepted.
- All payment is to be sent in Euros (€ / EUR).
- Payment will almost always be request via invoice.
- If an invoice is left unpaid for 2 weeks with no communication, the commission will be canceled and you will be privately blacklisted.
- Commissions that cost €200, or exceed this amount, can be split into two week payment plans.
- I have the right to decline any commission for any reason I see fit.
- If your commission has not been started, you can request a refund in full.
- Any and all refunds will only be issued through PayPal.
- If your commission has been started and you request a refund, you will only receive a partial refund which will be dictated by how much work has been completed.
- If your commission is over the halfway mark to completion, you will not be entitled to a refund, even if one is requested.
- You are not entitled to edit my artwork in any way, unless specified otherwise. This includes edits to reference sheets, commissions or YCHs, etc.
- I will send updates of your commission at the sketch phase, and flat colour phase. In between updates can be personally requested if you desire.
- Once an update has been shown and approved, I will not edit that stage. For example, if you have approved the sketch phase, and then later ask me to change the pose or expression, I have the right to decline this change.

- If many changes are requested throughout the duration of the commission which were not clearly stated before the commission was accepted, I will likely request additional financial compensation.
- I will not allow more than one character change before a commission has begun. If you wish to change your character once your commission has been started, I will decline.
- If the character change is drastic, IE, a drastic change in aesthetic or species, I may flat out decline to draw this new character. Please make sure you are secure in which character you are requesting for your commission.
- I will not make any alterations or adjustments to finished works. If you have approved the finished piece and then later come to me asking for adjustments, I will decline.
- I will refuse to draw any kind of hate speech / hate symbols, as well as certain themes and kinks, which are listed below.
- I highly prefer working from clear visual character reference sheets. If I can avoid having to work from shaded references (including shaded reference sheets), non reference art pieces, or written character descriptions, I will do so.
- If you would like your commission completed before a specific date, please message me beforehand and inform me about this request at least 3 weeks before the desired deadline. However, I will commonly charge significant financial compensation for deadline commissions due to having to push back my other projects and the stress they cause. Please keep this in mind.
- I am open for quotes any time, however, giving you a quote does not guarantee you will get a spot for the next commission opening, and does not mean I will accept your commission then and there after I quote you. Any given quote is also subject to change in the future, and is not set in stone.
- If you wish for your commission to stay completely private, IE, you don't want it posted anywhere, please specify so in your order. Should you fail to mention this, I will post the finished work on my platforms as usual.
For a completely private commission, I will charge an additional 15% added to the price of your order, as keeping a commission private can result in possible revenue loss on my end.
- If you wish to stay anonymous but are still fine with me posting the finished works, please specify this in your order.
- You are permitted to post your finished commission to other sites, so long as it is just for personal use, and that I am properly and clearly credited for my work in either the description or title.
- You are permitted to use your commission for personal private use.

- You are not permitted to use my work for merchandising, sales, or general commercial use, unless specified otherwise.
- I have the right to use the artworks I have created however I see fit.
- You are not to ask me to draw in different styles. You are commissioning me for my artstyle.
- You must be 18 or older to commission me. By commissioning me you automatically agree to being 18 or older.

FAQ:

How can I commission you?

My commissions are open very often, if not always. You are welcome to message me on Furaffinity, Telegram, BlueSky or even Email if you are interested in commissioning me. For regular commissions I will redirect you to my commission order form, which will be linked below.

Please refrain from discussing commission information or contacting me through Discord.

Can I reserve a commission slot?

Unfortunately I do not accept holds for commission slots, as it would be unfair to others who wait for my slots to open.

When can I expect my commission to be complete?

Most of my work is completed within at least a week or two of payment depending on how large my queue is. Work will typically be completed anywhere from within a few days, up to three months.

When do you accept In-Stream commissions?

I am open for In-Stream commission during every stream, unless specified otherwise. Streams are every day from Wednesday till Sunday, with the exception of Thursday.

What do you use to draw?

I use Clip Studio Paint and a Wacom Intuos Art drawing tablet.

When do you work?

My regular schedule is Tuesday till Sunday.

Usually my days off are Mondays and Thursdays.

On my days off I will not be responding to any messages or requests, aside from closing YCHs or posting art.

(This schedule is subject to change but I do try my best to stick to it)
