

School Nursing Services Medford Area Public Schools

2021/2022

18,976

health office visits

School nurses (SNs) are professional, licensed registered nurses(RNs) who work in the school setting to promote individual and population-based student health, provide care coordination, advocate for quality student-centered care, and advance academic success.

- Oversee Entire Student Population
- School Stock Epinephrine-Anaphylaxis
- School Stock Narcan-OIPIOD Overdose
- Medication Management
- Train and delegate nursing tasks to unlicensed personal

School Nurses:

Amanda Peterson, RN-MAMS
peteram@medford.k12.wi.us

Shannon Wiegel, RN-MAES/SES
wiegesh@medford.k12.wi.us

Mindy Schwarz, RN-District MASH/Alt/SOAR
schwami@medford.k12.wi.us

- Sealants
- Fluoride Varnish
- Hearing Screenings
- Vision Screenings
- Blood Pressure and Vital Checks
- Communicable Disease
- School Required Immunization

- Individual Health Plans
- Emergency Action Plans
- 504 Case Managers
- Interdisciplinary Team Member-IEPs
- Health Assessments
- Liaison Between School and Provider
- Mental Health Screening, Referral and Follow Up
- Triage
- Direct Care-Tube Feedings, Diabetic Care and Catheterization

- CPR/First Aid/AED Instructor
- Classroom Presentations
- Advocate for Student Health Needs
- Develop Policies
- Develop Procedures
- Medicaid Billing

- School Safety
- Identify Health Trends
- Increase Attendance
- Monitor Health and Academic Outcomes
- Data Collection

