About Nico

I began Nico Moving in 2016 start a new way of showcasing my work to the online world. In 2015, I returned to school to change my career. I will completely my certificate of Web Design in April of 2017 from Seattle Central College.

I graduated from Western Washington University in 2011 with a Bachelors of Art in Studio Art and Art History. I then worked for the Seattle Art Museum for four years, enjoying the privilege of working daily around great historical works of art, while gaining a community understanding of the importance of art and culture in the Seattle area.

Since beginning my new career path I've gained a new skillset, but my mission in life largely remains the same: to provide the world with enjoyable and satisfying products, whether it be websites or traditional artwork.
