

Preschooler Learning to use basic objects with small hands and limited strength.	Person with one hand Needs to operate everything with a single hand.
Elderly grandparent Deals with arthritis and low vision.	New parent Often multitasking with a baby in one arm and limited focus.
Teen with ADHD Easily distracted; prefers intuitive, fast interactions.	Construction worker Wears gloves and has limited dexterity during work hours.
College student on a budget Needs low-cost, portable, and durable solutions.	Person with limited English Can't easily read complex instructions or labels.
Young child with visual impairment Relies heavily on tactile or auditory feedback.	Person recovering from a leg injury Using crutches and has balance challenges.
Busy commuter Always on the go with limited time and hands-free.	Child with autism Sensitive to sound, texture, and unclear instructions.
Artist with messy hands Frequently works with tools while dirty or wet.	Gamer with low vision Relies on touch, contrast, and sound for use.
Delivery driver Needs quick, one-handed use while in and out of vehicles.	Musician with hearing loss Uses visual signals and vibrations over sound.