Subject Line- Use this technique to add 50ft to your drives.

Are some of your drives great, and others downright awful?

If so, you're like many others who practice day in and day out but never reach a level of consistency.

That alone is the key to being great at anything; That's because what is the point of being able to do it once, or only sometimes.

Often it leads your friends and colleagues to look down upon you and eventually left Behind.....

Don't get left behind, learn how to become consistent here.

Subject line- I came back from rock bottom...

There I was sitting on the edge of my bed feeling hopeless.

Thousands of dollars spent on ads, thousands spent on stock all for it to mean nothing.

Months go by and the money I do make goes right back into restocking my warehouses.

My net gain was so low I couldn't even afford to take my wife and kids out to eat...

I thought to myself what's next? And realized I had only two options.

Endure and break through this barricade in my journey or submit and acknowledge defeat.

Soon after I was fortunate enough to stumble upon some business models which I applied to my own and have seen 10x in both growth and revenue.

Find out how you can do the same here and become great.
