

Inside Christian Nationalism: Andra Watkins on Project 2025 and Escaping Childhood Indoctrination

About the Event:

Christian Nationalism is reshaping American politics—but what is it, and how does it threaten democracy? Join Andra Watkins, New York Times best-selling author, as she delves into the roots of Project 2025 and shares her personal story of childhood indoctrination in Christian Nationalism. This eye-opening discussion will connect history, policy, and lived experience to help us understand what's at stake and how to push back.

About our Speaker:

New York Times Best Selling Author Andra Watkins lives in Charleston, South Carolina. A non-practicing CPA, she has a degree in accounting from Francis Marion University. She's still mad at her mother for refusing to let her major in musical theater, because her mom was convinced she'd end up starring in porn films.

Andra is also an accomplished public speaker. Her acclaimed first novel To Live Forever: An Afterlife Journey of Meriwether Lewis was published by Word Hermit Press in 2014. She writes about her experience as one of the first living persons to walk the Natchez Trace as the pioneers did in her memoir Not Without My Father: One Woman's 444-Mile Walk of the Natchez Trace, nominated for the National Book Award for Nonfiction, the Sarton Memoir Award, and the IBPA Benjamin Franklin Award for Autobiographies and Memoirs. Her latest novel Hard to Die is nominated for the 2016 National Book Award for Fiction. andrawatkins.com.
