

GUIDANCE COUNSELOR INSTRUCTIONS FOR SCHEDULING STUDENTS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE “SPEND A DAY IN NURSING SCHOOL” PROGRAM

1. Once you identify an interested student, call or email Jennifer Hepler, Admissions Coordinator/Bursar at the Joseph F. McCloskey School of Nursing, at 570-621-5448 or jennifer.hepler@jfmson.org to schedule a day for the student to participate.
2. You may schedule any Junior or Senior student for Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday when lab classes are in session.
3. Give to the interested student the student participation packet with the participation date filled in on the front page. The student participation packet will include the program participation requirements, conduct and dress code requirements, parking instructions, permission slips, and directions.
4. The student must bring the required permission slip with them on the day they participate.
5. Students who fail to bring the permission slip will not be allowed to participate in the program and will be sent back to their home school.
6. Students sick on their scheduled day should be instructed to call the School of Nursing to reschedule.
7. The School of Nursing will inform the home school if the student fails to attend at their scheduled time or if the student fails to bring in the required paperwork.
8. The program will only be offered during September, October, and November this year.
9. The student will be scheduled for an 8 AM to 12 noon or 1 PM to 4:00 PM session. The student will also get a tour of the school and information on a nursing career during their last 1/2 hour here at the School of Nursing.
10. The student may want to bring money to purchase snacks and beverages during lab breaks.
