Ramapo Country Day Camp, Airmont, NY

June 2024-August 2024

Camp Counselor: Led and engaged two groups of children through the commute to camp and recreational and educational activities throughout the camp day. In this experience, ensured the safety of children aged 4 to 12 on the bus ride to and from camp, fostered a positive and inclusive environment at camp, resolved conflicts, built rapport with campers to enhance their experience, maintained clear and open communication with campers, staff, as well as parents while at camp and while aboard the camp bus. I worked closely with other counselors and staff to coordinate activities, share responsibilities, and ensure a smooth operation of daily camp activities.

University of North Carolina Wilmington History Dept.

May 2024-September 2024

Research Intern: Conducted historical research at the University of North Carolina Wilmington for their Sherman Emerging Scholars Lecture 2024. The 2024 lecture was given by Dr. En Li of the University of Texas at Dallas, and examined Chinese immigration to Western countries, particularly the United States, and how gambling can be used as a lens to examine these migrations. I compiled a bibliography of scholarly and popular sources on the lecture topic to help inform students, faculty, and local townspeople on Dr. Li's subject, researched and compiled a list of possible roundtable discussion participants, collected helpful material for the Sherman web page concerning Dr. Li and her research, interviewed Dr. Li, collected relevant information concerning her lecture and research interests, and wrote a scholarly review of topical sources.
