Human Colony (Hucolo) nonprofit organization

Comments from Max: There should be a clear division between what we realistically plan to do here on the ground and what we propose to do in the colonies. For clarity, I call us here Hucolo and up there Human Colonies. Also lets divide what we plan to start doing right away and what we plan delay until we have more resources.

Executive Summary

Channeling hub - helping lightworkers to speak to the dimensional beings via channelers.

Hucolo will be structured as a Non-Profit or as a benefit corporation, a non-profit organization accepts donations as tax deductible use of funds for a philanthropy cause.

A benefit corporation or B corporation is a corporate form available in certain US States, designed for for-profit entities that wish to consider society and the environment in addition to profit in their decision making process. Benefit corporations differ from traditional corporations in regards to their purpose, accountability and transparency. The purpose of a benefit corporation includes creating general public benefit, which is defined as a material positive impact on society and the environment.This will allow us to act as a separate legal entity with a usage of funds for salary positions & structure.
