Housing Options for the 2024 MAAP STARS Fall Conference

Lake Beauty Camp offers two styles of housing:

1. The Loon Lodge and the Edlund Retreat Center consist of dorm-style rooms with bunk beds. Each room houses from six to fourteen people. Each floor has two bathrooms, which have three showers a piece. We will assign males and females to separate floors as registrations come in.
2. The Eagle Ridge Cabins are one-room, rustic cabins (no frills) that sleep up to fourteen people. The bathrooms available for those staying in these cabins are separate buildings near the cabins, and have three showers a piece as well as heated floors.

Regardless of which housing option you select, we plan to house advisors two and students in separate rooms/cabins. PLEASE let us know if you want a one room cabin for your school/program.

IMPORTANT NOTES...

- Lodging for each school/program will be assigned as registrations come in. We plan to fill the Loon Lodge and Edlund Retreat Center first, then fill the cabins as necessary. If you prefer the one-room cabin option, please indicate that on the registration form. It is likely that 50-75 students and advisors will be assigned to the one-room cabins, so any school willing to select that option up front will greatly help the process!
- You will need to bring ALL of your own bedding, including sheets, blankets, pillows, and a mattress pad if you desire. Students could also bring a sleeping bag instead of the bedding if they prefer to do that. In addition, everyone needs to provide their own towels and toiletries for personal use.
- If any school substitutes a student after the registration forms have been submitted, please select a student of the same gender in order to maintain the integrity of the housing plan. We will have rooms/cabins assigned before you arrive.

Everyone is expected to clean up after themselves throughout the Camp and in their housing units. Rooms/Cabins must be cleaned and emptied prior to breakfast on the second day. Schools are welcomed to bring extra food and snacks; particularly for later Thursday night.
