Training Topics Covered

- Month-End Close Process Overview
- Core Accounting SOPs (Reconciliations, Variance Analysis, Journal Entries)
- Internal Controls & Documentation Standards
- Accounting Systems & Technology
- Cross-Department Collaboration
- Accounting Standards (GAAP/IFRS Overview)
- Process Improvement & Automation

End-of-Onboarding Review Process

- Self-Assessment: Employee reflects on confidence level across key areas.
- Manager Review: Manager evaluates technical performance, process understanding, and soft skills (collaboration, communication).
- Action Plan: If gaps exist, a personalized development plan is created for ongoing training.

How to Use This Plan

- Save this as part of your onboarding folder.
- Assign clear owners for each task (Manager, Employee, Team Lead, etc.).
- Use the Notes/Sign-off column to capture feedback, additional training needs, and completion dates.
- Review progress weekly to ensure your new hire stays on track.

Customizing the End-Sync 30-Day Training Plan to Fit Your Company's Needs

The End-Sync 30-Day Training Plan for New Accountants provides a structured framework designed to help new hires transition smoothly into their roles. However, every company has unique processes, systems, and priorities, which means this plan should be modified to align with your organization's specific accounting procedures, reporting structure, and technology stack.

Why Customization is Necessary:

- ✓ Different ERP & Financial Systems Training should include company-specific software and tools.
- Industry-Specific Requirements Accounting processes differ for retail, manufacturing, SaaS, etc.
- ✓ Internal Policies & Controls Adjustments may be needed for company-specific compliance and approval workflows.
- Reporting & Close Timelines Some companies have a 3-day close, while others have a 10-day process.

Steps to Modify the Training Plan for Your Organization

- 1. Review Your Company's Month-End Close Timeline
- Identify which days are critical for close activities and align the training accordingly.
- If your company has an accelerated close (3-5 days), front-load key reconciliation training earlier in the plan.
- 2. Map Training to Your Accounting Software & Tools
- Add sessions covering your ERP system, reconciliation software, automation tools, and reporting dashboards.
- Include hands-on system walkthroughs specific to your company's workflow.
- 3. Incorporate Company-Specific Policies & Compliance
- Insert training on internal controls, approval workflows, and financial policies that are unique to your company.
- If your company follows SOX compliance, add a section focused on documentation requirements.
- 4. Adjust Task Assignments Based on Role & Team Structure
- Some companies centralize reconciliations, while others assign them per department.

Modify the plan so the new hire is learning from the right team members.

5. Include Key Contacts & Mentorship Opportunities

- Add an internal list of key contacts for each process (e.g., who approves journal entries, who handles variance analysis).
- Assign a mentor or buddy for questions and training reinforcement.

6. Modify Based on Business Cycles & Financial Calendar

- If your company has quarter-end and year-end close, adjust the training schedule to account for heavier workloads.
- Introduce forecasting & budgeting training if applicable.

7. Gather Feedback & Continuously Improve

- After each new hire completes the plan, collect feedback on what worked well and what could be improved.
- Update the training guide annually to reflect process improvements and new system implementations.

Final Note

The End-Sync 30-Day Training Plan serves as a starting point to streamline onboarding, but it should be adapted to reflect the real-world workflows of your company. Taking the time to customize this plan ensures that new accountants are equipped with the right knowledge, tools, and confidence to contribute effectively from day one.

Recommendation: Designate a team lead or training coordinator to oversee modifications and ensure consistency in onboarding across your finance team.
