

Simple ways you can help

#CANCELSTUDENTDEBT #ALLOFIT

Alone, our debts are a burden, but if we organize, together they can make us powerful. Join us to fight for full student debt cancellation and free college for all.

1 Sign our petition and share with your friends: Help build our movement and show politicians this is a key issue for our communities. Sign our petition and share it with your friends.

2 Send a message to your Reps: About why $10,000 or $50,000 isn't enough. And share with your friends! It only takes a minute -- just click here.

3 Join your debtors union: Join your community of debtors fighting for debt cancellation and basic social goods like education, housing and healthcare.

If you can, pitch in membership dues so we can fund actions, dispute debts, plan gatherings, support local debtors unions and much more. If you can't afford dues, you can also join for free!

4 Follow us on social media: Follow us on Facebook and Twitter so you can get the latest updates and take action. Tweet at your representatives and pressure them to support this campaign. Tell them your story! You can find sample tweets here.

5 Introduce yourself on our community forum: Introduce yourself to the Debt Collective community and find others to connect with and plan local actions.

6 Join our campaign calls to get all the latest actions & events: We have a lot of activity and actions planned. Check out our campaign calls and trainings and join them so we can build pressure to win!

7 Join a working group: Are you an artist, designer, social media guru or researcher? Join a working group and lend your talents so we can win!

8 Recruit 4 other people: Recruit other people in your community to join the union and sign our petition. We need numbers to win!

9. Get involved locally! Connect with or start your local branch and help design local tactics and stunts to win! Check out the new member guide for information on your local branch or how to start one and check out our local action ideas here!
