

Board Race. There are 8 questions. All of the questions are from pages 15, 16, and 17. Work as a team to find the answers in your book. Then write the answer on the board. Only one team member may go up to the board at a time. You may not bring this piece of paper or your textbook with you to the board. The first team to get the correct answers to all 8 questions up on the board will get a prize.

1. How many parts are there for IELTS speaking?
2. What are the the questions in part 1 about?
3. For part 1, the examiner will ask you questions about yourself, such as:
4. What should you do if you make a mistake while you're speaking?
5. What words can you use to join your ideas when you speak?
6. What words can make you sound more natural when you speak?
7. To demonstrate your English ability to the examiner, it is important to give
_____.
8. One way to extend your answers is to try asking yourself
_____.

Answers:

1. 3 parts
2. you and your personal experience and opinions
3. your city or town, work or study, your family, your free time, your reasons for learning English, and your plans for the future
4. continue speaking even if you have made a mistake
5. also, so, because
6. actually, well, it depends
7. full responses
8. follow-up questions