Submission of Results

1. Upon the completion of a match, both players will call for the Sector Arbiter to verify the score. Players are advised not to reset the board until the score has been vetted. This will be done in the presence of both players, who will then sign on the results sheet once they verify the score written by the arbiter.
2. It is the responsibility of both players to report the score of the game. If only one player is present after the game has ended, the arbiters will record the result based on present player's word.
3. In the event that neither players report their score, the arbiters will record the game as both players having zero points for that game.
4. Where there is a walkover, this shall be indicated on the Result Sheet

Additional Rules

1. FIDE Laws of Chess apply.
2. Smoking is forbidden in the playing venue and building.
