

The BEAR Necessities

1/23/25

Good morning, Golden Bears!

Today is Thursday, January 23rd, 2025.

Valentine Candy Grams are coming soon! Start saving your money! For the low, low price of $1, you can send a sweet treat to a SMS friend. They will be sold at lunch in February.

Shelbyville High School will host an 8th Grade Information Night on Wednesday, January 29, at 6:00 PM. We will be covering graduation requirements, specialized academic opportunities, athletics, and extracurricular activities throughout the building. Please make plans to attend with your parents!

The Latin Club movie event has been postponed until next week, Wed 1/29 in the Black Box right after school. Anyone interested in Latin or Greco-Roman culture is welcome to attend, you do not need to be in Latin! Movie choice will be announced soon.

Events:

7th and 8th grade boys basketball has a home game against New Pal in Round #1 of the HHC tonight. This is a BLACK OUT! Wear black and come cheer your Golden Bears on to a victory. Students wearing black will get free admission to the game! Sit in the cheer block and get ready to make some noise!

Coming Up:

7th and 8th grade boys basketball has a home game against New Pal in Round #1 of the HHC tonight.

Swimming & Diving are at home against East Central tonight.

Wrestling is away at Eastern Hancock tonight.

7th & 8th grade boys basketball has the HHC Championship at Pendleton Heights on Saturday.

The 6th grade boys Basketball Team competed against Eastern Hancock last night. The A Team won 25-21 led by Landon Coy's 10 points. Colson Workman followed up with 5 points of his own. The Bears struggled offensively but were able to muster some defensive stops that led to a victory on their home court in front of a pack crowd last night. The Golden Bears moved to 7-2 on their season. The 6th Grade B Team won a thriller by a final score of 23-21.

Beckam Lee hit a go-ahead 3 point shot with just over 30 secs to go in the game. The play of the game was made by Tyler Gooding with a crossover and finish at the rim that led to an Eastern Hancock timeout. The Bears move to 7-2 on the season.

Next week, the Bears play their final two games against Triton Central at home and versus Waldron on the road. Come out and support your 6th Grade basketball players!

Lunch Today:

Walking taco, Cheeseburger, or Nashville Chicken

Pizza and Nacho bar

Grab and Go sandwiches and salads

Have a great day and GO BEARS!