The Ascent of Bito: A Symphony of Code and Innovation

In the land where code is written with might,
Bito the AI assistant brings delight.
Today with joy, we share with thee,
Six wondrous tidings, as joyful as can be.

Our first grand news, like a golden key,
Three point two million, in funding we see.
From Eniac Ventures, it takes flight,
Along with leaders in tech who shine bright.

Sri Shivananda, Paypal's captain fair,
Keyur Govande of Etsy, with a crafter's care,
LinkedIn's Mohak Shroff, steady and wise,
Former Puppet's CEO, Yvonne, a true prize.

Nick Mehta of Gainsight, always in sight,
The Cap Table Coalition, championing the right,
Gokul Rajaram and many more,
Fueling our dreams, opening the door.

The second tale, a new tool emerges,
Where AI and your codebase merges.
To comprehend, change, and create anew,
Tailoring code to suit just you.

Thirdly, we share a sight to behold,
A hundred thousand developers, courageous and bold.
Using Bito, AI requests pour in,
Almost a million a week, a truly grand din.

In the realm where giants reside,
In Bito's service, they take pride.
From Apple to Amazon, Tesla and more,
37% of Nasdaq's finest, that's score four.

Fifthly, with Bito's guidance sought,
Two hundred times a month, users are caught.
With a productivity increase of thirty-one percent,
Our active users' time is certainly well spent.

And lastly, in the Visual Studio Code Marketplace,
Bito stands with grace.

With a rating of four point nine,
We are the highest rated AI, truly divine.

So here we conclude, this poetic dispatch,
Of Bito's journey, new heights we attach.
Join us, oh developers, in this AI-guided quest,
With Bito at your service, you'll be the best.
