

`The urban Legend

Prologue

There is this nice new family moving into this old (said to be haunted) house in Colorado Springs. They think it will be fun for the whole family to clean it up and make it fancy, but when they are cleaning they find something they didn't want to find.

Chapter 1

Mom, are we almost there??! Yes honey we are pulling in the driveway right now. Welcome to your new home!!!! Lets get cleanin. AWWW!! But we just got here. I know but, the faster we get it cleaned the faster it feels more like home.

Chapter 2

They cleaned the kitchen, the kids bedroom, the bathroom, the porch, and the living room, but now they have to clean the hallway (the long hallway). They found this long maroon rug but there was a weird lump in the middle of it.

Chapter 3

They lifted up the rug and found an old trap door.! They didn't know where it led to and they didn't really want to know, but they had to.

(Because it was in their house) So they opened the hatch and found a big empty room. Wait, what is that? They found an old book and a note.

The book was called "The Urban Legend " and the note said something about the huge corn field in the front of their house. (here is the note)

If you have found this not it means that you are in great danger DO NOT!!!!!! go in that corn field don't even go near it Well the rest is for you to figure out

Chapter 4

Once they read the note they were shocked they got frightened and were all quiet for like 10 minutes straight! An hour later they ate dinner then they brushed their teeth and went to bed but all they could think about was that note. So the whole family decided to investigate

Chapter 5

They all brought a camera, a flashlight with brand new batteries, a whistle, and a neon spray paint can. They all picked buddies, one child with mom and another with dad. When they got their buddies, the 2 groups split up in the corn field. One of them would spray the paint where they had been so they didn't get lost and the other would keep an eye out. Then the mom said AAAHHH!!!! What!!!!??? Something touched my leg, mom stopped fooling around. This is serious business but mom said why would I be joking!? Oh no what is that!!!!!!!!??????? Mom, I think it is following us. Runnnnnnnnnnn!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Wait blow the whistle so the guys know we found something SSSSSSSSS!!!!!!!! Oh no the girls blew the whistle we better get out of here!!!

Chapter 6

Dad I got some bad news, the door is locked. Uh oh well i cant unlock it cause i dont have the keys but maybe the back door is unlocked!?! The back door was unlocked, they scaddled in and found a weird present.

Chapter 7

The box said do not touch but it was too late. Their little brother already unwrapped it. ``well like I said, the rest is for you to figure out.

Well nobody knows what happened to the family but they all say that there is still something in that cornfield but they say the book is about a scarecrow that was in the middle of the corn field but he fell down and nobody new but then he just disappeared, legend is that the scarecrow walks in that field at night looking for it's next family.

(Sweet dreams)
