We are NOT charging any assessment fee for cadet registrations.

There are no mandatory fees to participate in the Air Cadet program and the program is committed to keeping costs low for all participants. Fundraising activities support exciting optional and mandatory activities throughout the training year.

No one will be denied entry into the cadet program for financial reasons.

Annual Donation

The British Columbia Provincial Committee (BCPC) of the Air Cadet League of Canada (the regulatory body for Air Cadet squadrons in BC) levies an annual fee for every registered cadet to each squadron. This covers both administration and programming throughout the year. Families can donate to the squadron to cover this cost for their cadet(s). Donations can be made as part of the onsite registration process and may be paid either by e-transfer to ssctreasurer@692aircadets.ca or by cheque payable to 692 BCIT RCACS. The squadron is a registered charity and you will receive a charitable donation receipt.

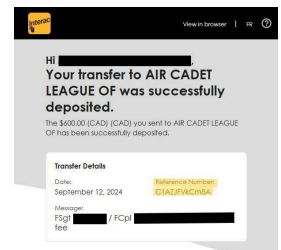

Other Expenses

Other expenses may come up throughout the training year. For example, a deposit of $20 is often collected to secure a spot for an activity like gliding or powered flight familiarization events. This practice is done to enhance cadet accountability. The deposit is returned to the cadet upon their arrival at the event.

Payment Methods:

- E-transfer to "ssctreasurer@692aircadets.ca".

It is strongly advised to send the e-transfer (as well as screenshot/print the confirmation) prior to completing the registration form and keep a copy of your payment as reference.

- Cheque payments can be made to "692 BCIT RCACS"
(Please clearly indicate your child's legal first and last name for reference.)
