In Heroes of Olympus: Blood of Olympus, by Rick Riordan, when Gaia, the Greek titan of the Earth, decides she wants to destroy the planet and recreate a world only her allies, 7 demigods from two camps, Camp Jupiter (Roman) and Camp Half-blood (Greek), go on an adventurous mission to both stop Gaia, and a brewing war between the two camps because of a still standing rivalry. I believe the theme of this book is, valuing each other's strengths may help you overcome challenges. I would rate this book a 10/10, as it contained several bone chilling cliffhangers, a wonderful plot, and was very descriptive. People I would recommend this book to are individuals who liked the Percy Jackson series or someone who enjoys Greek mythology.
