Intro to Waterside

I'm Ed Warren, and I'm head of primary phase at the Imperium Federation, which is a collection of different provisions catering for children with social emotional mental health difficulties as well as autistic spectrum disorder. We cater for children with Social emotional mental health difficulties as well as Autism and our children follow the normal national curriculum going on to do very well. In some cases they return to the mainstream.