VIRTUAL CARE

Pet Telemedicine Offerings:

These websites can offer basic at home care or help you determine the seriousness of a pet's illness/ situation.

<https://vetster.com/> (possible prescriptions)

<https://firstvet.com/us> (cannot do prescriptions)

<https://www.dutch.com/> (possible prescriptions)

<https://virtualvetcare.vet/>

<https://bondvet.com/telehealth>

<https://www.chewy.com/b/connect-vet-16616>

<https://pawp.com>

Pet Telemedicine cannot always prescribe medication in all states SC/ NC /GA so make sure to read all information on websites prior to paying for an appt. If a prescription is wanted try Vetster or Dutch first. Virginia and Florida are both states that might be able to prescribe if you sought refuge in either.

If you have pet insurance, your company may already be working with a tele-provider:

- Rainwalk

- Nationwide

For livestock farm/animal needs *and/or* donations (not human needs), please enter them in this form- go.ncsu.edu/livestockdisasterhelp. A team from NC State Extension and the NC Cattlemen's Association is dispatching as needed what gets entered there or called in. Please also reach out to your area livestock county agent if they are available/accessible, as they are the points of contact in the county helping with farm needs and pick up spots in your area.

Any immediate and emergency needs can also be called into the Ag Hotline - 866-645-9403 and they will connect directly with the vet's office for animal health issues.
