Last Updated 6/20/2024

If you commission me, you are accepting all my Terms of Service

You are welcome to ask/discuss any of these terms with me!

Examples and Pricing

Payment

- ❖ Commissions under 25$ will be paid in full
- ❖ Commissions 25$ and more can use a split payment plan: half will paid at the beginning, and the payment will be completed upon finishing the commission
- ❖ Payments will be made through Paypal or Venmo

General

References are required for any commission–this can be written descriptions, pinterest boards, turn-arounds, moodboards etc.

- ❖ Updates will be given at any time upon request! In addition, each stage (sketch, lineart, color) will be approved by the commissioner before progressing
 - Completion time will vary on complexity, size, order of commission, and any personal/work issues that may occur. A base deadline will be discussed upon the first payment
 - If you a purchasing a commission for a specific deadline, let me know in the initial request

- ❖ Major changes made after the sketch/lineart that is not an artist error could cost extra!
 - Cost varies on the scale of the change, and when in process it was made
 - Minor changes may be exempt
- ❖ I have the right to publicly post the commission, and use it as further commission examples
 - Anonymity will be granted upon request

Refunds/Cancellation

- ❖ I reserve the right to cancel any commissions and refund money at any point
 - ❖ I would much rather work through any grievances/issues with the commissioner, for that reason refunds/cancellations might not be accepted!
 - Refunds will not be given for anything under 25$
 - ❖ If canceling a commission becomes necessary, my process is as follows:
 - Cancellations will not require the commissioner to complete the payment, but the initial payment will be kept
 - If a full refund becomes absolutely necessary, it may be requested during the sketch and lineart stages
- *If you file a chargeback against me, your rights to any work I made for you will be revoked, and I will have the rights to sell the work to new buyers.
