To maximize schedules, students should consider taking all courses in a pathway for the full year.

For example, all courses in the Criminal Justice pathway each day for the FALL and SPRING semester will result in 12 college credits. If a student does not wish to enroll in one of the pathway interactive video courses, the student may choose to enroll in an online course opposite the interactive video course. Intersession and Summer Courses are optional and could result in 18 college credits in one year. Additional online courses are available for students with study halls.

Students are limited to one additional online college course per semester.
