

Calendar of Events

Have a Google Calendar where everyone can see all of the events we have going on

- Will be located up at the top where the other panels are on the Amino

Key for what the colors mean for the Calendar

- Blue = "Time-based" events
 - These are events that have a timeline of sorts
 - Usually events that require entries to participate (giveaways, CTE, etc)
- Red = "One-time" events
 - These are events that happen on that day
 - Usually events that happen once (Trivia Night, Movie Night, Music Trivia, etc)
- Yellow = Dates of when posts for particular events go up by
 - These posts should go up on that day in order to give members notification of upcoming events
- Green = These are when Staff decisions will be made and posted for any events that require decision making

Feesh will make post tonight about the calendar and put it up

Post Editor Group

Group of individuals we hold applications for that help others with their posts

- Could be anything from helping them improve their post to make it "feature worthy" to finding the credit for any art they use
 - People have to go to them for help, not the other way around
 - This is to prevent arguments
- Also send Staff links to posts that don't have proper art credit so that we can give the 24 hour warning

Incentive for the group

- Meeting certain milestones (sending links to Staff)
 - 5 links sent = 5 Amino coins
 - 10 links sent = 10 Amino coins
 - 20 links sent = 20 Amino coins
 - 40 links sent = 40 Amino coins
 - 80 links sent = 80 Amino coins
 - 100 links sent = Shiny pokemon, 250 Amino coins, 3 titles

Group will have a wiki page where members can go and ask for help with posts

Talk with Lost about leading the group while Staff just monitors it since she was the one who suggested something similar before

Application post

- Raven to make and have it up by tonight/tomorrow (at the latest)

Group of the Month

This is where we give recognition to a group on the Amino

Post created by Staff

- Entails 3-5 specific posts from members in the group that makes the group GoM
 - A sentence explaining why the posts were good, etc.
- Gives recognition to groups who are active here

What makes a group the GoM?

- Activity from a lot of its members
- Good content from members
 - Good posts count but posts that are featured count more
- “Showmanship” = group members are being kind around the Amino

Info Post

- Feesh to make the post
- Goes up tomorrow evening

Decision of GoM will be made between Wednesday, December 5th and Friday, December 7th

- Put it in Info Desk

All Staff to participate in the Introduction part of this

Prize for doing all 30 days

- Free title and 200 Amino coins

- Feesh to make and put up on the 7th

Bi-weekly Quizzes and Review Prompts

Every other week Staff creates either a quiz (anything pokemon related) or something for members to review (some aspect of the games, pokemon, battling mechanics, music, theory, etc).

- With quizzes, quiz stays up for a week and the top players with the highest score get titles
- With the review, members have a week to “review” whatever is presented. A post will go up and have members vote on their favorite “review” (with the questions mode). Top winner(s) get their post featured (and title)

Switch off between the two depending on the week

First quiz and post made by Raven

- Post goes up on the 15th
- First quiz goes up from the 18th-24th

Information Desk

That things needs a good ol update lmao

- Feesh to take care of that by the end of the week
- Separate services from info desk (have a wiki for that)
 - Figure out which ones are still active and remove ones that aren't
