

Little Rabbit Foo Foo

Modified by Andy

Key of D

[D] Little rabbit Foo Foo, [A] Hopping through the [D] forest,
[D] Scooping up the field mice, and [A] bopping them on the [D] head.

[D] Then the fairy grandmother came and she said
[D] "Little rabbit Foo Foo, [A] I don't wanna [D] see you,
[D] Scooping up the field mice, and [A] bopping them on the [D] head."

[D] You've got oooooone chance and if I [G] ever see you again
[D] scooping up a field mouse. I'll [G] turn you into a field mouse
And [A] bop you on the [D] head.

Then the next day, you know what happened? You know what happened?

[D] Little rabbit Foo Foo, [A] Hopping through the [D] forest,
[D] Scooping up the field mice, and [A] bopping them on the [D] head.

[D] Then the fairy grandmother came and she said
[D] "Little rabbit Foo Foo, [A] I don't wanna [D] see you,
[D] Scooping up the field mice, and [A] bopping them on the [D] head."

[D] That was your laaaaaast chance" so she [G] took her magic wand
And [D] pointed that wand at that little louse, she [G] turned him into to a field mouse
And [A] bopped him on the [D]

And then the next day, you know what happened?

[D] Little mousey Foo Foo, [A] running through the [D] forest,
[D] getting scooped by granny, and [A] bopped on the [D] head.