Roksanda Kosmajac Hi Kevin > They implant us with TESLA's Nano Bots via these Chemtrails (metallic micro dust that goes into our brains), that way everyone is tagged, including the animals everywhere on the planet... this way they can direct anything at the spur of the moment, make animals react, accidents, serial killers, etc. Via TESLA big computer they know everything that you're thinking. Kevin Craig Canada You are absolutely right EVERYTHING that lives has been IMPLANTED for MIND CONTROL, DEW and A.I. I THINK THEY EVEN INCLUDED A KILL SWITCH

DoodlebugsDream has sent you a message You can reply to this message by visiting your messages. It's mind control, hypnotism, neural linguistic programming or NLP, propaganda, brain washing, alchemy, sigils, subliminals. 85% running on a program, 15% with awareness, that's some pretty harsh math. No wonder some don't wanna leave the house except for supplies, the second you're out the front door you're walking among zombies. So many are being targeted now and all communication monitored. Thank you for not giving up on spreading the word. Take Care my friend.

PavlovsBitch May 19, 2014 • Chemtrails, goo, mind control, geo engineering, biological warfare There is always a dual purpose at least, to any action taken by and through government. Chemtrails are metalised and biologically infused. The metals not only cut the brain off from optimum functioning but also transmit or act as conduit amplifiers of more exotic technology such as H.A.A.R.P. which is multifunctional. In this respect the carrier wave frequencies are attuned to manipulate biological life to act in accordance with signals or altered frequencies. Another effect in reality is to infuse the body with 'the chip' through nanotech within the chemtrails and clouds. Reducing the reach and radiance of the sun, also profoundly affects all life forms, making access to light/information reduced. It takes more energy just to stay still. Meanwhile, back at the ranch ..

+whitewidowbeast Your mind is read through signals intelligence EMF brain mapping programs. This system has been in place since post WW II, as part of the plan to implement world government. They figured that if they could find a way to utilize the EMF fields around the body as a way of keeping tabs on us, that they could use the same system to enslave us. The NSA was charged with finding a way to do so. Their solution was to create a means of scanning the electromagnetic spectrum to search for the unique EMF fields produced by the body. The NSA's Signals Intelligence EMF Scanning Network is the result of this research. This scanning network is being used to remotely track us, experiment upon, torture and even murder us. The entire government in the United States is unraveling... Texas is now preparing for what is termed to be a new economic Armageddon, in which the banking system is going to collapse. As a result, Texas has now threatened the Federal Reserve System by passing legislation which orders the Federal Reserve to send $1 billion in gold bullion back to Texas, however, the Federal Reserve System has no intent to do so. This is why the Jade Helm military exercise was really created. As a means of covertly threatening Texas Governor Greg Abbott to back off of the Federal Reserve. Abbotts' legislation establishes a precedent so that the other 49 US States can now create their own legislation to repatriate billions in gold bullion from the Federal Reserve. If the Federal Reserve was forced to comply this could result in its bankruptcy, which would drive the Rothschilds and their Zionist supporters out of the United States. The situation with the Obama Administration's nuclear deal with Iran is also prompting Israel to threaten to attack Iran with nuclear weapons if this deal goes through. Combine this with Russia's reestablishment of the Soviet Union and an alliance with North Korea, and what we have here is the makings for World War III.

The Stealth Genocide

Program - Review:

Death In The Air

By Uri Dowbenko

u.dowbenko@lycos.com

8-13-1

You can call it "genocide." You can call it "crimes against humanity." Or you can call it "population control." Whatever you want to call it, the target is the same - people.

In other words, if you regard humanity as a race of "useless eaters" (that's Power Elite-Ruling Class jargon), you would employ your extensive resources for population reduction.

In fact, believing in Malthusian and Darwinian ideology would require you to cull the masses - and not just by the usual means of wars and "low-level conflicts."

A strategic propaganda campaign through Government-Media would be enacted to promote "public health" practices, which are actually hazardous to the well-being of the population.

This genocide by stealth -- using "public health" to promote slow death -- is the subject of Death in the Air: Globalism, Terrorism and Toxic Warfare by Dr. Leonard Horowitz.

A health science investigator and author of many ground-breaking books, Dr. Horowitz was one of the first to discover and publicize the "smoking gun" documents, which showed that US Government defense contractors like Litton Bionetics were responsible for the production of the AIDS virus, a man-made disease used for bio-warfare and "population control."

"Acceptance is not easy in this regard," writes Horowitz in the book's preface. "Coming to terms with such facts leads by necessity, through Elizabeth Kubler Ross's 'death and dying' process. In her model, denial is always the first step in integrating a horrifying painful reality. It is not pleasant to consider the possibility that many of our public servants cannot be trusted, but even worse, that friends and family members may have been injured by such biochemical attacks."

The biochemical attacks to which he refers include a panoply of population reduction techniques -

* Man-made bio-warfare agents like AIDS and Gulf War Syndrome.

* Toxic pharmaceuticals made by multi-national chemical companies with ties to the genocidal Rockefeller-I.G. Farben Syndicate.

* So-called "chemtrails," which rain death and sickness from the skies on an unsuspecting populace.

* "Mandatory" vaccinations for polio, hepatitis B et al

* Air-borne pesticides like Malathion and Anvil, used by public health officials to supposedly control diseases like the West Nile Virus.

Dr. Horowitz writes that "the alleged outbreak of a type of arbovirus provided an excuse to spray 'mosquitoes' as well as millions of predominantly Jewish, Black and Hispanic residents in the tri-state metropolitan region" during the so-called "outbreak" of West Nile Virus in New York City.

The decidedly racist subtext of this genocide by stealth is one of the predominant themes of the book. The expendables, those whom the deranged Malthusians have decided are to be eliminated, are targeted again and again in illegal government "experiments" or "public health programs." Using humans as guinea pigs has certainly not ended, and because of its promotion through government agencies like CDC, it has become defacto state-sanctioned genocide.

"By 1930, John D. Rockefeller's Standard Oil company had 'married' the I.G. Farben chemical pharmaceutical cartel," writes Dr. Horowitz in the book. "Farben's directors - the cream of the SS and Third Reich - decided that Jewish people would best serve as slave labor in their corporate 'concentration camps.' Hitler's 'racial hygiene' program, historic documents showed, evolved from the 'public health' and 'scientific eugenics' effort of the Rockefeller Family, the British Royal Family and other powerful notables including Prescott Bush - George W. Bush's grandfather."

"It was Rockefeller money that primarily built the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute for Eugenics, Anthropology and Human Heredity in pre-Nazi Germany, forerunner to today's Cold Spring Harbor Labs' operation," Horowitz continues. "Then, the Rockefellers installed Ernst Rudin as the Institute's director. He later became Hitler's chief racial hygienist. Margaret Sanger, the grand matriarch of 'family planning' and world 'population control' worked vigorously at that time to herald the necessary elimination of 'dysgenic' people - mainly Blacks and the mentally retarded."

The "population control" movement and its twisted history based in eugenics is also responsible for the multi-billion dollar abortion industry and its promotion as "birth control" - but that's another story

With strong financial ties to the multi-billion dollar scam called "The Cancer Industry," which promotes a phony "War on Cancer" as well as useless albeit expensive "cures" and "research," this chemical-pharmaceutical beast of a cartel is also heavily involved in the bio-warfare industry, the production of toxic chemicals often tested on unwitting US citizens.

"George H. W. Bush's Secretary of State, James Baker III, was reported to have owned part of the [Gulf War] vaccine manufacturing company against whom ailing Gulf War veterans had filed a lawsuit," writes Horowitz. "Moreover Mr. Bush is said to have been a major shareholder in that company -Tanox Biosystems of Houston."

Why is this significant? The so-called Persian Gulf War needs to be reconsidered as a bio-warfare testing ground - against American troops by American commanders.

"In fact Bush became a board director at Tanox-affiliated Baylor College of Medicine after leaving the CIA directorship," Horowitz continues. "Tanox was closely linked to Dr. Shyh-Ching Lo, who under employment by the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology, isolated and patented a 'pathogenic mycoplasma' originally taken from an AIDS patient that somehow contaminated many of the vaccines given to allied military personnel traveling to the Gulf. Only French soldiers who did not receive the American-made vaccines did not develop Gulf War Syndrome."

By the way, Tanox and Baylor College of Medicine first tested their mycoplasma or fungus-infected vaccines on Huntsville, Texas prisoners. The prisoners consequently developed Gulf War Syndrome - before the Gulf War even started.

In other words, Gulf War Syndrome was predictable - and therefore preventable. So why were US troops dosed with infected vaccines?

Horowitz's conclusion is chilling. "The US military, generally comprised of nationalistic, sovereign thinking, patriotic individuals who pledged to kill and die to defend the US Constitution against all foreign and domestic enemies, represented a 'clear and present danger' to the evolving New World Order."

It was decidedly an Illuminati "two-fer-one." Accomplish two objectives in a single operation: 1. Kill off the America-centric military with slow death Gulf War Syndrome, and 2. Make money by selling polluted vaccines.

The propaganda campaign waged through the media about the efficacy of vaccines is pure psychological operations, or PsyOps, in military-speak. It's a way to confuse the "enemy" - the American public-to believe that black is white and white is black and vaccines will "prevent" disease - rather than lower the immune system and infect a younger generation with toxins that will eventually become cancer in middle age.

Heavily documented, Dr. Horowitz's book describes in detail the many modalities of slow death disguised as public health policy.

For instance, aerial spraying of neuro-toxic pesticides has become a commonly accepted practice, despite the outrageous risks to humans and animals. The so-called med-fly "epidemic" required spraying toxic chemicals over heavily populated areas, according to public health officials. This charade did nothing but debilitate the immune systems of the elderly and other minorities who happened to live in the affected area.

Horowitz notes that "in 1998, Dan Rather reported on the CBS Evening News the 'emergency' spraying of Malathion by 'black helicopters' simultaneously over Miami Beach and Los Angeles for an alleged 'fruit fly infestation.'"

A world-renowned speaker on health issues himself, Dr. Horowitz writes that "I thought it odd that there would be: 1) emergency fruit fly infestations in urban settings as most pest captures I knew were in rural areas, 2) sudden simultaneous infestation of the same species more than three thousand miles apart. In this case, it seemed too convenient that the US disease control and agricultural officials together with the military had decided to kill two fruit fly infestations with one helicopter dispatch, and 3) the predominant 'fruit flies' in Miami Beach and Los Angeles were elderly Jewish, Hispanic and Blacks. Who better than these 'pests' might they desire to spray?"

Reported with a straight face by Government-Media shill Dan Rather, this wacky story was accepted as gospel truth by a gullible TV audience.

Dr. Horowitz concludes this report by saying that "moreover I knew that Dan Rather could not be trusted as he had personally admitted in June 1992 being used for CIA cover stories and counterintelligence propaganda stories."

Death in the Air has additional chapters on

- * Chemtrails (contrails containing toxic chemicals sprayed from aircraft; officially called "Operation Cloverleaf," according to government insiders)
- * the bizarre toxic Red Tide phenomenon in New Jersey,
- * HAARP and atmospheric heating "experiments,"
- * the so-called abortion pill RU-486 (Mefeprex) and its deadly side effects,
- * the euphemistically named "non lethal weapons,"
- * psychological operations against civilians,
- * CIA mind control programs (MK ULTRA and MK NAOMI), and
- * electromagnetic weapons used for mind control. Dr. Horowitz also describes the early roots of contemporary eugenics and its racist Ruling Class origins, most notably the people-hating Paul Ehrlich and his propaganda classic, The Population Bomb. "We can no longer afford to merely treat the symptoms of the cancer of population growth; the cancer itself must be cut out," wrote Ehrlich. If you didn't get it, Ehrlich considers people to be the cancer of Planet Earth. Today even though his false prophecies have been thoroughly discredited, Ehrlich's lie-of-a-book remains mandatory reading to brainwash future generations of college students.

Death in the Air reveals how non-governmental organizations (NGOs) are used for genocide, how the US Geological Survey promotes government propaganda, and how vaccinations are a tool for global genocide -- linking the infection of Gays in America and Blacks in Africa with the man-made disease called HIV/AIDS.

Facts presented by Dr. Horowitz also effectively discredit the popular myth of "vaccination safety," promoted by the mass media and public health officials.

Color reproductions of astonishingly graphic genocidal art at the Denver International Airport and its ominously named "New World Airport Commission" are also found in the book. These murals are illustrations that depict nothing less than the Death of Humanity (the death of indigenous peoples, Blacks, Latinos and Whites) and the rise of Global Eco-Fascism.

Dr. Horowitz's previous book Emerging Viruses: AIDS and Ebola (1996) was an underground best seller -- a scathing indictment of the criminal Military-Industrial-Medical Complex, referenced by actual government documents and reports as evidence.

His Healing Codes for the Biological Apocalypse (1999) was an expose' of the occult mysteries of biological and psychological warfare.

Death in the Air is a must read -- a brilliant and disturbing work of investigation amid the prevailing subtext of genocidal public policy.

The issue of "public health" and its abuse by government officials is a dagger in the heart of every American, and Dr. Horowitz presents clear-cut evidence of malevolent intent and criminal conspiracy.

The book, however, ends on an optimistic note. "Ultimately the choice to assimilate this knowledge and intelligence is both practical and spiritually uplifting," he writes.

"Although this factual account may seem overwhelmingly bad, if not horrifying, these revelations have come in cadence with the greatest spiritual renaissance in history."

"For the most part we are not required to blindly follow medical advice: consume toxic chemically treated foods and drinks, or even breathe polluted air," he continues. "My family, for instance, has chosen to rely on alternative health professional and self-care practices. We do not pay for costly health insurance, but invest our savings in a healthy lifestyle. We have learned to treat ourselves with periodic fasting, detoxification, deacidification, immune boosting, oxygenation and bioelectric and bioacoustic therapies." Anyone who wants to understand "bio-spiritual warfare" should read Death in the Air.

"I have seen the difference my protests have made in people's lives around the world," Dr. Horowitz writes. "A simple sharing about vaccine risks today can save an infant, a child, or a parent's life tomorrow."

We know they are killing us...They know they are killing us...Everyone in a position of strength has known this for years...You are not going to change their plan....They own you and they want you stupid and dead so your children can then give up even more intelligence, freedoms and rights....They look at the population as a crop that they want to breed without resistance and with a shorter lifespan....Then they dump the spent shells as they hone their control skills, keeping only the obedient, non creative, submissive, docile, technology addicted sheep...Each confined to their own "cell" phone while being tweaked and monitored as the perfect voluntary slave...

CHEMTRAIL AND MIND CONTROL FOR THE WORLD

Indefinite Detention Is Torture

Habeas corpus, or the Great Writ, is the legal procedure that keeps the government from holding you indefinitely without showing cause. "The serious physical and psychological harm that results from such detention can constitute cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment," charge the Center for Victims of Torture. "These effects are amplified in detainees who have been tortured or experienced trauma prior to commencement of indefinite detention."

A California Law Review debate about the rights of detainees during wartime will likely include discussion of the torture at Guantanamo Bay Prison, where 800 years of Habeas Corpus law – the right to know why you are being held captive by the State – came undone.

The "Symposium on Habeas Corpus in Wartime" will take place at UC Berkeley Law School in South Auditorium on April 6, 2016 from 9:00am to 4:00pm, with a reception to follow. For event details, visit bit.ly/habeasortime#HabeasWartime.

Should constitutional law be applied to U.S. wars of aggression? What happens when you don't deal with the crime of unlawful incarceration? University of Texas professor Stephen Wasieleski advocates closing Guantanamo (ignoring) but he, and others, are prepared to subject "Forever Prisoners" to Obama era Political Abuse Search. The "bases" of the detention camp can only be accomplished with a determination to charge or release all inmates.

"Closing Guantanamo the right way requires ending indefinite detention without charge or trial; transferring detainees who have been cleared for transfer; and trying detainees for whom there is evidence of wrong doing in our federal criminal courts here in the U.S., namely the ACJU. If a prosecutor cannot put together a case against a detainee, there is no reason that person should continue to be imprisoned."

"The degree of civilization in a society can be judged by entering its prisons," wrote Russian novelist Fyodor Dostoevsky in The House of the Dead. The cruel, inhuman, and degrading treatment – torture – inflicted on disenchanted subjects from Mexico Bay to California to Bagdad, Afghanistan, must not only end; the prescription of American immunity to international law must be repudiated.

Demoralizing of U.S. warzone camps can't wait. It's up to people living in the United States to mobilize against agents of denial and neglect. It's up to us.
