A fellowship to the young people from the FTTA office:

Sanctify your lifestyle from worldliness; do not be conformed to this age. In particular, avoid any personal involvement or relationship with members of the opposite sex. This is in the principle of purifying yourself with the hope of being like the Lord when He is manifested one day (1 John 3:2-3).

Thoroughly immerse yourself in the church life wherever you are. Like a plant nursery, the church life is a special environment that preserves and nurtures you humanly and spiritually.

Read through the entire Bible. By reading the Bible routinely you will become someone who loves God's word. We love the Word because in it we can meet the living Person of the Son of God

Furthermore, reading the ministry during your high school and college years will lay in you a foundation of the apostles' teaching.

We suggested that you read the following ministry books:

See the list below in [the section "Recommended Solid Readings".]

With proper scheduling you can easily finish in a few years and secure both a general idea of the contents of the Scriptures and a basic spiritual knowledge of the crucial items in the recovery.
