

Mrs. Pacheco
Special Education Teacher

My name is Jodie Pacheco. This is my 31st year teaching in Catskill. I grew up in Catskill and currently live here with my husband and three children. We have 3 dogs (2 labs & labradoodle) and a cat. I earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from Marist College. I also earned a Master's Degree in Developmental Reading from the University of Albany. I enjoy family time, reading books, and spending time at the ocean. I love watching my favorite baseball team play - the Atlanta Braves!
