Investigator Comment:

Case is very straightforward, you agreed to a deal of paying R$11,000 at the end, for which you indeed paid R$4,500 upfront, but then gave excuses to pay the rest afterwards the work was complete. Considering the upfront payment and how you failed to respond to me within 48 hours, I find you guilty on Broken Rule 2.2.1. Not completing your side of the original deal; Time-wasting., and the verdict I decided is a ban from HiddenDevs for four months.

Sincerely,

Fishermatey
