Individual Questions for this Round

MOTION	QUESTION(S)	ANSWER AND CITATION
Postpone Indefinitely	Part 1. You moved to postpone the main motion indefinitely. How would this differ from postponing the main motion definitely? (4 pts)	Postpone indefinitely is a permanent rejection of the motion without a direct vote; Postpone Definitely sets a specific time for further consideration to take place, RONR (12th ed.) 11:03
	Part 2. RONR describes an "occasional special use" of this motion by strategists. Explain that. (12 pts)	It extends debate, including on the merits of the main motion, and the vote can be used to test voting strength (and perhaps to tell you WHO is opposed.) RONR (12th ed.) 11:05

Limit/Extend Limits of Debate	Part 1. A main motion and several subsidiary motions are all pending. You want to limit debate on everything except the main motion. How would you do that? (10 pts)	The motion can be applied to the immediately pending question, to any consecutive part of the series beginning with the immediately pending question, or to the entire series. If the motion does not specify to which of these questions it is to apply, then only the immediately pending question is affected. RONR (12th ed.) 15:07
	Part 2. There are 3 conditions for exhaustion of the effect of a motion to Limit/Extend Limits of Debate. What are they? (2 points each, 6 pts)	(1) when all of the questions on which it was imposed have been voted on; (2) when those questions affected by the order and not yet voted on have been either referred to a committee or postponed indefinitely; or (3) at the conclusion of the session in which the order was adopted—whichever occurs first. RONR (12th ed.) 15:18

Parliamentary Procedure – Final Round

Withdraw	Part 1. At what point can the mover withdraw his own motion without needing permission? (8 pts)	Before a motion has been stated by the chair. RONR (12th ed.) 33:12
	Part 2. What happens to a pending amendment if the mover successfully withdraws the main motion? (8 pts)	It is also withdrawn RONR (12th ed.) 33:16

Object to the Consideration of the Question	Part 1. Why would a member object to the consideration of a question? (8 pts)	enable the assembly to avoid a particular original main motion altogether when it believes it would be strongly undesirable for the motion even to come before the assembly RONR (12th ed.) 26:1
	Part 2. What vote is required for the motion to Object to the Consideration of the Question? (8 pts)	A two-thirds vote against consideration is required to sustain the objection RONR (12th ed.) 26:2(7)

Fix the Time To Which to Adjourn	Part 1. Fix the Time To Which to Adjourn can be either debatable or undebatable. Please explain this phenomena? (8 pts)	If offered as a main motion, it is debatable. If offered as a privileged motion, it is NOT debatable. RONR (12th ed.) 22:04
	Part 2. What is the difference between the motion to Fix the Time TO Which to Adjourn and Fix the Time AT Which to Adjourn? (8 pts)	Fix the Time TO Which to Adjourn sets an adjourned meeting, and can be either privileged or a main motion. Fix the Time AT Which to Adjourn sets the time for the current meeting to end and is ALWAYS a main motion RONR (12th ed.) 22:11

2021 National FFA Parliamentary Procedure LDE Motions & Individual Questions

Parliamentary Procedure – Final Round

Questions for the Chair	Part 1. Explain the difference between an adjourned meeting and a special meeting. (8 pts)	An adjourned meeting is a continuation of the current meeting at a later date or time. A special meeting is a separate session called as prescribed by the bylaws. RONR (12th ed.) 22:09
	Part 2. One of the duties of the President is to preside over the Board. What are 4 of the procedures that can differ in small boards? (2 points each; 8 pts)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Members may raise a hand instead of standing when seeking to obtain the floor, and may remain seated while making motions or speaking. 2) Motions need not be seconded. 3) There is no limit to the number of times a member can speak to a debatable question. Appeals, however, are debatable under the regular rules—that is, each member (except the chair) can speak only once in debate on them, while the chair may speak twice. 4) Informal discussion of a subject is permitted while no motion is pending. 5) When a proposal is perfectly clear to all present, a vote can be taken without a motion's having been introduced. Unless agreed to by unanimous consent, however, all proposed actions must be approved by vote under the same rules as in larger meetings, except that a vote can be taken initially by a show of hands, which is often a better method in small meetings. 6) The chairman need not rise while putting questions to a vote. If the chairman is a member, he may, without leaving the chair, speak in informal discussions and in debate, and vote on all questions RONR (12th ed.) 49:21
