

Directions: Use this chart to start out writing your ideas today, Monday 3/23 (just like we have done in class before when we wrote about our favorite movies). You may make your own chart on binder paper if you would like. This is just your brainstorming session! Remember, the more details you add on this chart, the easier it is to write your story.

Now don't forget a story ALWAYS needs a title and a proper beginning, middle and conclusion!

Name: _____ Date: _____

Title =

Topic = (what's your story about? This can just be a few words)

For your key ideas, you don't need to write formal sentences since this is just your brainstorming writing session. You may just write bullet points if you would like!

Key Idea #1: This will end up becoming your first paragraph:

Key Idea #2 This will end up becoming your second paragraph.
