Privacy Policy for Remote Tabs

Last Updated: [Insert Date]

Introduction

Remote Tabs ("the Extension") is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, and safeguard your information when you use our Chrome extension. By using the Extension, you agree to the terms outlined in this policy.

Information We Collect

- Browser Tabs: The Extension collects information about the URLs of the tabs you choose to sync to your account. This information is necessary for the core functionality of the Extension.
- User Authentication: We collect and store your username, key, and hashed password to securely manage your account and ensure that only you can access your saved tabs.
- Cookies: The Extension uses cookies to manage user sessions, keeping you logged in and ensuring secure access to your synced tabs.

How We Use Your Information

- Tab Syncing: The URLs of your browser tabs are stored in your account to allow you to sync and retrieve them across devices.
- Authentication: Your username, key, and hashed password are used to verify your identity and secure your account.
- Session Management: Cookies are used to maintain your login session and provide a seamless user experience.

Information Sharing and Disclosure

- No Third-Party Sharing: We do not share your personal information, including your synced tabs, username, or authentication details, with any third parties.
- Legal Compliance: We may disclose your information if required by law or in response to legal requests.

Data Security

We take your data security seriously. All sensitive information, such as your password, is encrypted before storage. We use industry-standard security measures to protect your data from unauthorized access or disclosure.

Your Choices

- Account Management: You can manage your account information, including your username and key, within the Extension.
- Cookie Management: You may disable cookies through your browser settings; however, this may affect the functionality of the Extension.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be reflected in the "Last Updated" date above. Continued use of the Extension after changes indicates your acceptance of the updated policy.
