

Notes pasted from your spreadsheet look like this, but then...

Born in NY City on Oct. 11, 1884 ("Eleanor" n.p.)
Full name: Anna Eleanor Roosevelt ("Eleanor" n.p.)
Niece of President Theodore Roosevelt ("Eleanor" n.p.)
Went to Allenswood boarding school in London, learned from headmistress Marie Souvestre
(Winget 37)
1905 - married Franklin Delano Roosevelt (Winget 37)
had six children one died as a baby ("Eleanor" n.p.)
Became first lady in 1933 ("Eleanor" n.p.)
Made fact-finding trips for Franklin who was crippled by polio (Winget 75)
Traveled nationwide on lecture tours (Winget 75)
Wrote a daily newspaper column (Winget 73)
Newspaper column was named My Day ("Eleanor" n.p.)
Had her own radio show ("Eleanor" n.p.)
Helped work with Red Cross in World War 1 ("Eleanor" n.p.)
1926 helped found a furniture factory in Hyde Park for unemployed ("Eleanor" n.p.)
held 350 press conferences for women reporters only (Winget 73) worked with young people and underprivileged (Sawyer 112) fought for equal rights for minorities (Winget 105)
Served 1945-1951 on United Nations Human Rights Commission (Sawyer 98)
Members of Commission elected her to be chairman in 1946 (Sawyer 99)
Helped create a UN "Universal Declaration of Human Rights" (Sawyer 101) died in New York City on November 7, 1962 (Benson 1342)

... the pasted notes become paragraphs. So, this...

Born in NY City on Oct. 11, 1884 ("Eleanor" n.p.)
Full name: Anna Eleanor Roosevelt ("Eleanor" n.p.)
Niece of President Theodore Roosevelt ("Eleanor" n.p.)
Went to Allenswood boarding school in London, learned from headmistress Marie Souvestre
(Winget 37)
1905 - married Franklin Delano Roosevelt (Winget 37)
had six children one died as a baby ("Eleanor" n.p.)

...becomes this.

Eleanor Roosevelt was born in New York City on October 11, 1884 ("Eleanor" n.p.). Her full name was Anna Eleanor Roosevelt ("Eleanor" n.p.). She was born into a famous family, and was the niece of President Theodore Roosevelt ("Eleanor" n.p.). Once she was old enough, she went to Allenswood Boarding School in London. There, she learned many things from headmistress Marie Souvestre, including a love of learning and service (Winget 37). In 1905, she married Franklin Delano Roosevelt (Winget 37). They had six children, and one died as a baby ("Eleanor" n.p.).

Make sentences out of ALL of your pasted notes.

Then, add your own writing to weave it all together.

Next, write your own intro paragraph:

In the history of America there have been many first ladies, but one first lady in particular stands out from the rest. As First Lady, Eleanor Roosevelt was extremely active in politics and social causes, and she is a role model to everyone because of her efforts to improve people's lives. She worked hard to make the world a better place, and she inspired many others to do the same. Eleanor Roosevelt's contributions to America have had a long-lasting effect on society.

Now, write a concluding paragraph that summarizes your writing.

Eleanor Roosevelt was an extremely generous person that dedicated her life to helping others. She left a big legacy behind her after her death on November 7th, 1962 (Beasley 451). She is an inspiration to many people because of her passion and giving spirit. Eleanor blazed a trail for women in politics and changed what it meant to be a first lady. She was not content with just being the president's wife, she wanted to make a difference. She was a strong, determined person that wouldn't let anything stand in her way. Eleanor is a role model because of how she strived to make a difference and change the world for the better. The deeds she did to improve the lives of the American people are truly great and will not be forgotten.

The final version will look something like...

Jane Doe

Mrs. Smith

English 1

13 December 2017

Eleanor Roosevelt: A Voice for the Voiceless

In the history of America there have been many first ladies, but one first lady in particular stands out from the rest. As First Lady, Eleanor Roosevelt was extremely active in politics and social causes, and she is a role model to everyone because of her efforts to improve people's lives. She worked hard to make the world a better place, and she inspired many others to do the same. Eleanor Roosevelt's contributions to America have had a long-lasting effect on society.

Eleanor Roosevelt was born in New York City on October 11, 1884 ("Eleanor" n.p.). Her full name was Anna Eleanor Roosevelt ("Eleanor" n.p.). She was born into a famous family, and was the niece of President Theodore Roosevelt ("Eleanor" n.p.). Once she was old enough, she went to Allenswood Boarding School in London. There, she learned many things from headmistress Marie Souvestre, including a love of learning and service (Winget 37). In 1905, she married Franklin Delano Roosevelt (Winget 37). They had six children, and one died as a baby ("Eleanor" n.p.).

The rest of my paper (including a concluding paragraph at the end)
would continue here.

My Works Cited is at the very end of my paper.

Works Cited

- Benson, Sonia, et al. "Roosevelt, Eleanor." UXL Encyclopedia of U.S. History, vol. 7, UXL, 2009, pp. 1339-1342. Gale Virtual Reference Library, go.galegroup.com/ps/i.do?p=GVRL&sw=w&u=ncw3880&v=2.1&it=r&id=GALE%7CCX3048900525&asid=3b02e8442cc67d0a3cab2db1395c3754. Accessed 28 Feb. 2017.
- "Eleanor Roosevelt." Britannica School, Encyclopædia Britannica, 3 Feb. 2017.
school.eb.com/levels/high/article/Eleanor-Roosevelt/276785. Accessed 28 Feb. 2017.
- Sawyer, Kem K. Eleanor Roosevelt. London: DK Pub., 2006. Print.
- Winget, Mary. Eleanor Roosevelt. Minneapolis: Lerner, 2000. Print.

Make sure your sources are in alphabetical order - based on the first word in the citation.

Good luck on your paper!