1. Can you tell us your name and a little about you?		A. My name is Khaled Chowdry, and I'm from Bangladesh. I'm an asylum seeker, and I'm in the UK about 14 years, almost. I go around in UK everywhere, it's like in Newcastle, Blackpool, lots of places I've visited and I meet lots of people, and nice people, and I'm always look to do volunteers everywhere. And people is um..it's a fantastic response I get every time when I meet with the people.
2. How did you find out about the Branch and get involved?		B. I had been homeless for 2 years, up in York, and I go to Du Paul, a charity organisation which is for homeless people and they was helping me lots. And then after when I come in here, I went to Home Office and apply for my accommodation and then after they gave me accommodation Section 4. I had depression and PTSD and I had no money nothing else, then I was talk with the hotel manager about food. I can't eat, I have acidity problem, I can't eat hotel food, and then hotel manager is send me here. And Charlene, who is Branch manager, I think so, Charlene was helping me and she said to me Khaled don't worry. And at that time they gave me some food, they gave me some lamb, some things, some food in here. Then after I say do you need a volunteer.
3. In your opinion, what is the best way to learn English?		C. Basically, meet with the local people, conversation, talk, I don't know this one, this one. Show them, what does this name, that name, vegetable name, it's practical learning. This is the best way, I feel it.
