

Integrity Policy

Broughton High School

Mrs. Malach

The following is a list of identified cheating methods, the consequences of cheating in Wake County, and the Honor Code. At the very bottom of the page, there is a line for your signature and a parent's signature indicating that you are aware of the policy.

This list includes, but is not limited to:

- 1) Suspicion of AI use
- 2) Use of a friend's phone (because you put your phone on the holder)
- 3) Use of your phone (because you put a burner phone on the holder)
- 4) Use of a calculator cover to hold written answers
- 5) Use of a calculator cover to disguise a phone
- 6) Use of a desk to write out answers
- 7) Use of a cheat sheet
- 8) Use of a classmate's work

The penalty is an alternative assignment with no greater than a 60% earned on the assignment.

Honor and Integrity Statement

I pledge to uphold the highest standards of honor and integrity in all of my academic and personal endeavors. I will be honest in my work, take responsibility for my actions, and treat others with fairness and respect. I will not engage in cheating, plagiarism, or any form of dishonesty, and I will strive to make ethical decisions even when no one is watching. By demonstrating integrity in my words and actions, I contribute to a community built on trust, accountability, and mutual respect.
