

Did you know ?

Verse 1 : They're walking so fast, that i never, had all the time to see their happy smiling faces, to know that, they're good enough to hear, what it's all about, that I think that I need a big picture collection of the laughing I did miss

Refrain : Did you know that when I'm seeing you my hearts started to making a boom,
 I always think of what it would be when we woke up and get a snack, Together would at least last together, but I don't think that this happen in this time at, but I'll just look at the polaroids and get my smile back, of the choice

Verse 2 : Although I know, that they didn't even noticed me, I walked upon on their face, to see if they got any smiling wrinkles, because in the pictures they were laughing, so big that I could not oversee their shining smiling all over the place

Refrain : Did you know that when I'm seeing you my hearts started to making a boom,
 I always think of what it would be when we woke up and get a snack, Together we would at least last together, but I don't think that this would happen
 in this time at, but I'll just look at the polaroids and get my smile back, of the choice
