

Introduction

Hello there! My name is Erii (she/her), 30. I have a bunch of hobbies including writing and drawing, which will be evident from my blogs!

One important thing to know is that I am an aromantic asexual. Simply put, I'm just not interested in a romantic or sexual relationship, but I am platonically loving towards my friends.

Additionally, I am autistic. When it comes to new people, I can be anxious or shy, but I do try to be as friendly as possible! It may take some time for me to come out of my shell and allow myself to be silly or more talkative if I vibe well with you.

Because of the above, I may occasionally misinterpret what people write if certain words have multiple meanings. If I make a mistake, just let me know as gently as possible. I'm very understanding, and in RP cases, I'll fix a response if it's necessary.

I WILL NOT FOLLOW OR INTERACT IF:

- You are a discriminatory person. Basically, if you are LGBTQA+ phobic, racist, antisemitic, ableist, sexist, xenophobic, a zionist, or antikin. Use of any slurs, or support of hateful groups related to this kind of hate will also not be tolerated. Remember: Black Lives Matter, Stop Asian Hate. And don't support Autism Speaks, because they sure don't speak for me!
- Your blog is 100% NSFW or frequently posts NSFW. This is mainly for sexual content, but I also cannot handle real blood/gore or detailed gore art. Written and simplistic gore art is fine.
- You have been outed as a pedophile/groomer/abuser or tolerate/support underage ships (as in shipping a minor with an adult), nsfw or fetishy content. Or you age up a character who is a minor to put them in sexual situations.
- You are a "proshipper" or whatever else you call it. Fiction will always affect reality and glorifying incest, pedophilia/relationships between minors and adults, bestiality (this includes pokephilia), noncon, and dubcon is extremely damaging. Take it from someone who has been badly affected and traumatized immensely by the content she has seen as a child without warning.
- You support AI generated art or writing. There is no soul or feeling in having a machine spit things out for you. Not to mention it's literally stealing from others who've worked hard to get where they are.
- You roleplay as or roleplay with "offensive humor" characters (ex. Family Guy, South Park, any Vivziepop series), Harry Potter characters, SrPelo characters (ex. Spooky Month), or as real people/Youtubers, which should not be treated as characters. OCs from any series above also count. I am not comfortable with these and do not want to be anywhere near content relating to them.

> I won't interact with Friday Night Funkin' characters unless you're a close friend and aware of my boundaries regarding its themes. If you aren't and you have one on a multi, please be sure to tag them so I can blacklist!

- Other DNI criteria which suit my blogs are here.

About the IM system

The IM system should only be used for discussing starters or plot other roleplay-related things and is mutuals-only (if asklordofthelost follows you, that's me). I'm not really comfortable with using it for conversation, unless it's absolutely necessary. If I really know you well enough or are comfortable around you, I will most likely share my Discord for more personal conversations.

Rules for Personal / Non-RP blogs

- 1) Please do not reblog anything except for my art. You may add anything else to your likes, but please take note of the next rule for this.
- 2) Do not add 5+ posts to your likes at one time, just so my activity feed is clearer and I can see who has responded to any threads we have going on. I also ask that you do not like anything I did not originally post - please like or reblog from the original source.
- 3) Asks are allowed, but you cannot fully interact with my muse (as in have roleplay threads with them).

Rules for Roleplaying / Interactions / Asks

1) My #1 rule is this: no sexual nsfw interactions of any kind. Not even dirty jokes. If this rule is ignored or overlooked, it will be an automatic block, since people should ask if someone is comfortable with that beforehand. And if anyone wants to be mutuals, I ask to please tag suggestive / nsfw stuff so I can blacklist them (just #nsfw and #suggestive will do) - this includes anything that is implied, plus any jokes or mentions of genitals.

Additionally, I prefer it if detailed nudity / half nudity were tagged, especially images. (ex. #nudity / #topless)

2) Other things to avoid is the harming or death of rabbits in threads, including consumption. If anything has to be posted on your blog involving it, please tag it as #rabbit death cw or #rabbit harm cw.

I also would rather have unsanitary stuff avoided as much as possible (emeto especially). Nausea is fine, just don't overdo it.

3) This blog will happily interact with almost any muse from canons to OCs (with exceptions from my DNI list)! I will more than likely interact with an OC if they have a proper about page.

Just note that if I feel our writing styles don't mesh, or you play as a character I'm not sure how to interact with, I may not want to write with you. Please don't take it personally!

4) Please don't rush me if I take my time to reply. I have issues with hand pain, work a part-time job, and other irl factors can affect motivation.

5) Other general RP rules apply: keep fights fair! Do not automatically hit my muses in fights unless it is discussed / don't constantly dodge. There also should be no additional godmodding, no metagaming, no bunning, and do not reblog a roleplay that is currently in progress with someone else and throw yourself into it without permission.

6) An important thing to note is that I'm not really a shipping kind of person. I'm only willing to do such a thing with people I really trust, and even then, it would take a lot of time for muses who would actually be okay with being in a relationship. Many of my muses are aromantic/asexual or underage, so the possibilities are very limited.

7) If you're uncomfortable with me following or interacting with you, there's no shame in blocking or soft blocking! Your safety and comfort is important.

For Clarity:

- Mun \neq muse. Anything immoral or outright horrible my muses may say/do, I do not condone, especially in the cases of my villain muses (or highly violent ones).
 - Even so, the darkest thing I will write or draw is along the lines of gore/torture (kxllerclaws only) and other specified themes on my content warning pages. There will be no hate speech or additional unspecified extremities regardless of the moral standing of my muses.
- I do not support any problematic creators, even if I may write characters from their media (as a means of reclaiming them).

I know these rules are long, so I appreciate whoever takes the time to read them!
