

Agenda~Twitter, Moving Beyond the Basics

1. Electronic Sign-in
2. Exploration of Twitter, 1:30-2:30
 - As you explore in today's session, you will be tweeting out all the resources you want to collect for future use. It's VERY IMPORTANT that you put #gwd50 at the end of each tweet so others in the class can also use your resources.
 - Videos, blog posts, articles
 - Twitter in the classroom
 - Twitter lists
 - Twitter chats
 - Hootsuite
 - Storify
3. Continued exploration and creation of your Storify (at least 54 tweets), 2:30-4:15
 - I will be coming around to you each of you individually to explain the details of storify. Start on your Storify by 4:00
 - Storify video
4. Sharing of group's Twitter and Storify experiences, 4:15-4:25
5. Exit Survey, 4:25-4:30

Details for what to tweet about for your Storify:

VERY IMPORTANT: don't forget to add #gwd50 at the end of each tweet!

1. 10 people to follow recommendations and why to follow them (people outside of the district)
2. 9 retweets from the 10 new people you followed in #1
3. 8 videos, blog posts, or article links that will help you continue learning more about Twitter, grow as a professional, or be helpful in teaching your curriculum. Make sure your tweet includes the title, link, and hashtag(s)
4. 7 hashtags that would be valuable for you to follow and why
5. 6 possible ways you could use Twitter in your classroom or as a professional
6. 5 Twitter chats that could be helpful for you to participate in to grow professionally
7. 4 pictures or videos that you could use in your classroom or for professional development
8. 3 Tweets to any of the people in today's class about something professionally
9. 2 tweets to district leaders/school board members thanking them for providing the tools and training for our move into digital learning!
10. 1 direct message to me about what you would like to continue learning about Twitter
