

Bio

Megan Kuiper is a dynamic keynote speaker, consultant, and coach with over 21 years of corporate leadership experience and a passion for helping others reignite their energy, purpose, and dreams.

A former Director at Target Corporation, Megan made a bold leap from burnout to breakthrough, leaving behind the hustle-driven path to create a life rooted in alignment, connection, and sustainable success. Today, she equips high-achieving professionals and culture-driven organizations with the tools to do the same.

Through her signature keynote, “Leading Through Human Connection: The Fastest Path to Belonging, Engagement, and Performance,” Megan blends powerful storytelling, practical mindset shifts, and her transformative DREAM framework to help audiences shift from running on empty to leading with purpose.

Whether on stage, in coaching sessions, or partnering with teams, Megan’s approach is rooted in authenticity, growth, and a contagious belief that your goals are both important and possible. She’s here to help people tap into their own fire, create meaningful habits, and lead lives filled with joy, impact, and intentional connection starting now.
