

Global Ambassador for Social Media Channels.

Slash is a decentralized payment protocol, capable of connecting to third party decentralized financial DApps via smart contracts and automating the token conversion process via smart contracts.

Slash supports:

- 6 types of blockchain protocols.
- More than 1400 different tokens.
- There is no need to swap for payment.
- Easy QR codes creation
- You can easily request crypto payments in stores, on menus, receipts, or on any EC site.

Our next ambassadors should align with the Slash vision, and we value passion, creativity, some level of technical knowledge, and high engagement in social media. We are a very open and transparent community, please check the entry criteria for each case.

Your task would be to engage our networks; therefore, we are currently looking for ambassadors who are active on Twitter and Discord and who master one of these seven skills:

Writing & Translation

To be considered: Write a 3-5 minutes medium article about Slash and tag @SlashWeb3. The topic is very open, we want to see your writing style.

Retailers

To be considered: Pick one of your favorite retail brands and share a post on Twitter and Discord about "How Slash can leverage your favorite retail". Please tag your favorite brand and Slash.

Designer (Graphic, Product, 3D, Fashion, Motion Graphics)

To be considered: Please create in twitter or discord any Slash visual media entry, such as graphic art, picture, video, animation) and tag @SlashWeb3. Idea: An invitation to Slash Discord.

Programming & Tech

To be considered: Publish a technical article, featuring Slash. It could be a form of tutorial or explainer, technical review or performance, open source, etc.

It could be published either on Medium or as a thread on Twitter.

Social media influencers

To be considered: Please share an amazing post on Twitter or Discord, referring to Slash. It should engage with other users.

NFT artists

To be considered: Create a Slash NFT art. All media is allowed.

DeFi / Blockchain speakers

To be considered: Create and share a 2- to 3-minute Slash audio recording on Twitter. It could be in the form of a podcast with another expert, a Slash introduction, etc.

Please note: These are community roles, and in the entries, we are seeking the quality and level of engagement.

How to apply?

Please share your entry in our Discord server: Slash Web3Payments, in the ambassadors channel, and please explain for which track of influencer, ambassador you could be contacted for.
