

Harkness Assessment With Non- Negotiables

Non-negotiables for discussion: We will only assess your performance if you...

- + Contribute to the conversation
- + Apologize for interruptions
- + Do not use racial, homophobic, or gender slurs, or other hateful language
- + Have your materials with you

Communication Discussion IITc	I can independently contribute to discussions in an on-topic way by adding my voice.	I can contribute to discussions in an on-topic way by adding my voice using connections, observations, and questions.	I can contribute to discussions by adding my voice using connections, observations, and questions. My contributions reflect my active listening and push the conversation further.	I can act as a leader in discussions by not only adding my own voice, but using my physical and verbal language to invite others to make connections, observations, and ask questions.
What does this look like?
	I can contribute an on-topic comment to a discussion I use soft skills to show I'm engaged in a discussion.	I can contribute an on-topic comment to a discussion I also ask at least one question of another member of the discussion I use soft skills to show I'm engaged in a discussion	I can contribute at least two on-topic comments to a discussion, and at least one contribution uses direct evidence from the text I ask at least one probing question of the group/a member of the group OR refer by name to a comment made earlier in the discussion I use soft skills to show I'm present in a discussion	I make an attempt to use questioning and prompting to improve the discussion for ALL participants I can contribute at least two on-topic comments to a discussion, and at least one contribution uses direct evidence from the play I ask at least one probing question of the group/a member of the group I use soft skills to show I'm present in a discussion