Brief reports:

Inter-House Football Competition of the year took place with great excitement and enthusiasm. The event brings together students from eight different houses, promoting healthy competition and camaraderie among participants. The competition not only aims to demonstrate the sports talents of students but also promote team spirit, sportsmanship and school spirit. The competition is organized in two categories to provide better opportunities to students at all levels. Matches are played in a knockout format, which adds to the fierce on-field competition between houses to progress to the next stages of the competition.

Desired Outcomes: After many intense rounds, few house teams won notable victories. Each match demonstrated the dedication and determination of the players, making this a memorable event for both participants and spectators alike house parents, teachers and students. At the end, the winner celebrates his victory, while all the participants are applauded for their commendable efforts and teamwork.

1. Men category: Wangchuk house (winner), and Sonam house (runner up)
2. Women category: Gartoen house (winner), and Drugom house (runner up)

Participants from the winning houses and finalist houses received trophy for 2 week to cherish the memories as winners and certificates. The inter-house Football tournament was a resounding success, highlighting the importance of sports in promoting physical fitness, team spirit and school spirit. The event not only helps students demonstrate their sports talents but also arouses a spirit of solidarity and friendship in the school community.
