

Trials I: The Bill Of Rights

Name _____

Take careful notes on the following items:

Early immigration to America:

Spanish:

French:

Dutch:

English:

Puritans:

“The Pilgrims” and Plymouth

Puritans and Massachusetts Bay

Roger Williams and Anne Hutchinson and Rhode Island

How the southern colonies differed:

Puritanism comes and goes in England:

Tensions in late 17th century Massachusetts Bay:

The fall of the Puritans:

Witchcraft and the Salem Witch Trials

The great witch hunt (c. 1450 – 1700)

Theories of historians about witchcraft in general:

Margaret Murray:

Carlos Ginzburg:

Norman Cohn:

Sir Hugh Trevor-Roper:

Theories about the Salem Witch Trials in particular:

There were witches (Tituba, for example):

It was all about land (especially for the Putnams):

Mass hysteria:

Actual naturally occurring disease (several candidates including ergot poisoning):

Teen hormones:

Misogyny:

Tensions between old-line Puritans and more commercial types:

Indian Wars: