

Voidborn Pitch

Author: James "Dragon Master" Courneya

Genres: Fantasy – Alternative – Development – Political – Action/Adventure

Length: Short-to-Medium.

Synopsis:

A hundred years ago a dark hole in the sky opened up. From it came various powerful materials and history changing blessings. A kingdom was built around this sky void. An age of knights and kings quickly evolved into a rapidly built new society of incredible power and prosperity. Nearly all living residents having grown up with the void having always existed. Most looking at it as purely a divine blessing.

Things began to change when a person falls from the void.

The action of which throws everything into question. Questions that do not receive proper answers before more voids begin opening up around the world.