

Week 10 Homework

November 3, 2025- There is no School for students tomorrow. Please use tonight and tomorrow to study for your Mastery Learning Test and/or the Unit 2 Parallel Test. The Mastery Learning tests will be given on Wednesday, November 5th and the Parallel Unit 2 will be given on Thursday, November 6th. Reminder: the Parallel Test does not count as a grade. 😊

If you are retaking the Unit 1 test: I gave you a Unit 1 Test study guide packet in class today (there are instructions on this packet's cover sheet if you are retaking the Unit 1 quiz). Try your best on this tonight. The answer key will be posted to the Google Classroom tomorrow at 8 a.m. so that you can check your answers and study.

If you are retaking the Unit 2 quiz: I gave you a Unit 2 quiz study guide packet in class today. Try your best on this tonight. The answer key will be posted to the Google Classroom tomorrow at 8 a.m. so that you can check your answers and study.

November 4, 2025- NO SCHOOL FOR STUDENTS. REMINDER: Mastery Learning Tests will be given tomorrow and students should use the provided packets as a study guide.

November 5, 2025- Family Connect Night

Our Unit 2 Parallel Test will be tomorrow. Review your Fractions Review Packet.

November 6, 2025- Spiral Review #7 is due tomorrow!

November 7, 2025- End of the 1st Quarter Marking Period

Looking Ahead:

The Unit 2 Test will be on Wednesday, November 12th.

Spiral Review:

Spiral Review 7 was given on Monday, November 3rd via the Google Classroom. Students are expected to show all work in their Math Notebook (NOT on scrap paper). For this review only, it is due on Friday, November 7th so that the students have the opportunity to boost their grade before the close of the marking period. The lowest Spiral Review grade for the quarter will be dropped.

Extra Help: Tuesdays and Thursdays at 7:25
