

AMERICA'S NEXT ~~top model~~ MMA fighter

Season One, Episode Eight

I'm Tyra Banks and welcome to the eighth episode of the first season of America's Next Top MMA Fighter. This is my show, my rules and everything that happens here is my decision.

We are getting down to the wire now. I've been told that I'm only allowed two more episodes to complete this first season. While I am annoyed that someone is telling me what to do, it's fine. Because I'm getting bored and I'm already looking forward to starting season two next year.

And 2020 sucks.

With five girls left in the competition, tonight I will be eliminating two girls. Five, subtract two, equals three.

As I mentioned, this is our eighth episode. In the first seven episodes we have taken amazing photographs and pushed the girls as far as they can go in a swimsuit.

They may be trying to win a place in the Death By Bikini UCC stable, but there is more to being in the UCC than just wearing a bikini or one piece swimsuit.

As hard as it might be to believe, UCC fighters can wear cage attire that isn't worn at the beach. I'm talking about Denim, Lingerie, Evening Gowns, Work Out Gear and Mini Skirts.

In this episode each of the five remaining girls must wear and be photographed in those different UCC attires.

I want to see beauty. I want to see poise. I want to see attitude.

Now, on with the show.

MMA Training with Christie Brinkley

We are nearing the end and I'm looking forward to taking a vacation when all this is over. But, for now we must keep working out and training.

The winning girl needs to be cage ready. So this time around we've been concentrating on MMA techniques. Grappling, submissions, striking, takedowns and so on.

I've been pushing these final five girls to the limits of their physical endurance. I've had them sweating more than ever. They have been awash in perspiration.

We all may be exhausted, but the end is in sight. I know who I'm rooting for. I hope everyone watching this has their favorite girl picked out.

Modelling with Paulina Porizkova

This time around the remaining girls aren't modelling in swimsuits. As Tyra has said, this time it's all about wearing the other UCC attire choices. That can be difficult if all you've ever focused on is how to look good in a bikini.

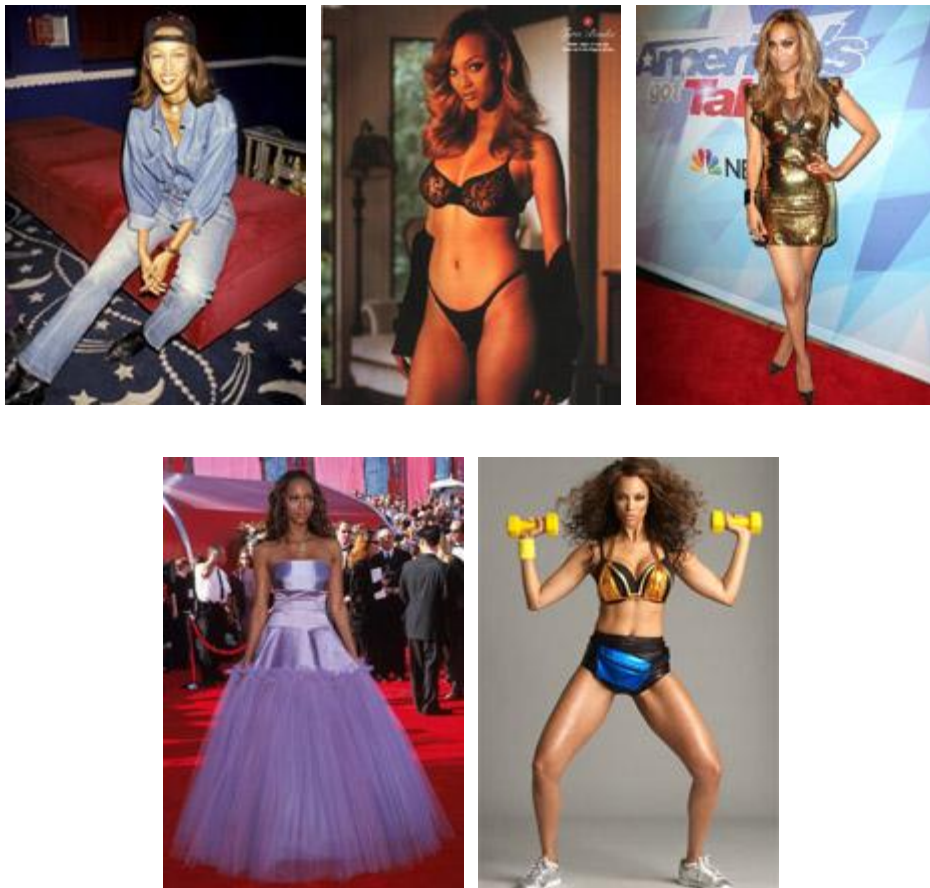

We tasked the remaining girls to find their own attire choices for Denim, Lingerie, Evening Gowns, Work Out Gear and Mini Skirts.

Once they made their choices, I guided them to taking the very best photographs they could.

We need to see that they can adapt to a pair of jeans or a long dress.

Lesson Six: Best photos in the other UCC attires.

To prove that a swimsuit model can pull off any look, here's some of Tyra's greatest hits from her past!

Judging with Tyra Banks

Now it's time for me and the other judges to review and cast our votes.

In front of me I have 5 girls. 5 talented girls who all want to fight inside a UCC cage and wear the uniform of a Death By Bikini warrior. 5 girls who are just fine to sometimes wear something other than a bikini.

But not all of you have what it takes. Today I will send two more girls packing. I'll send them back home to their Mommas.

In my hands I have a shit load of photographs. I have photos of all five of you. And I have multiple photos of each of you. There are so many photos that my math is failing me to add them all up.

So we will do this attire by attire. Working our way through each UCC attire category.

Let's start with the best Denim photo from each of you. In no particular order...

Camille and Haley. What a fantastic way to start today's judging. The two of you are rocking those denim jackets in such a perfectly sexy way...I just want to jizz in my panties.

No bras and open jackets, you girls are a tasty snack. Camille, the head down coy look is working for you perfectly and Haley, hooking your thumbs into the waistband of your jeans is a display of exceptional modelling technique.

Moving on to Hunter and Olivia. I've got some quite different looks here.

Hunter, you've opted to ditch your clothes on top and just wear a bra. The pairing of that with ripped jeans is super sexy. I like it. I like it a lot. The color denim really suits you, babe. I'd ask you to sit on my lap, but you weigh too much.

Olivia, your look is more classy. More modellesque. More Vogue. It suits you well and the angles of your face are catching the light in such a way that I can see this photo on any magazine cover.

The fifth denim photo I have belongs to Robin.

Ripped jeans, high heels and a sheer top. What more could Momma Tyra ask for?

Robin, with this photo you are truly cementing your place in this competition. There were times at the start of this process where I doubted your commitment and ability, I no longer have those doubts.

Just look at your poise, your pose, your posture...I love it all.

The positioning of your hands and your stance. Modelling perfection.

Ladies, thank you for giving me five excellent examples of how to successfully wear denim.

Robin, let's stick with you as we move onto the next category of UCC attire, the Evening Gown.

Two words leap to mind when I look at this photograph, sleek and fierce.

It looks like you poured yourself into that dress. The color is to die for (get it?) and your pulled back hair and bent arm would make the sexiest of UCC fighters quake.

While most women in the UCC may choose a long, flowing ball gown for this attire choice, you've picked something that looks sexy, but you can fight in.

That long slit running up your thigh is perfectly designed for high kicking your opponents in the face.

Robin, I commend you for your attire choice and your amazing ability to model. Well done.

Going for a more traditional Evening Gown, next up I have Olivia and Camille. Both of you choosing a classic white color palette and both looking stunning.

I love these dresses, but for different reasons. Olivia, you are 100% classic. The strapless, full length, draped look suits you perfectly. Just like Robin, you have your hair pulled back and it suits this look.

You look timeless.

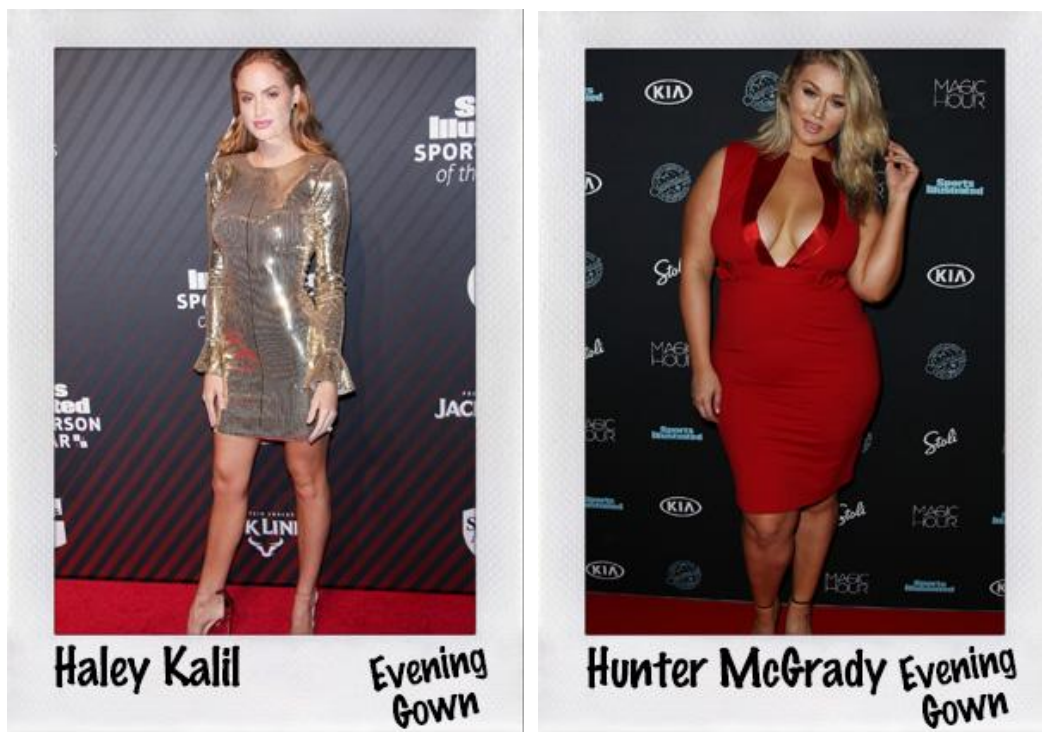

Camille, such fun! Teasing and flirting. Your hair is down and you're smiling. Honestly, you look like the girl that every guy wants to take to the prom.

Moving on to Haley and Hunter. Two quite different looks here.

Haley, you're showing me your modelling chops here. Legs for days. Immaculate and glittering.

Hunter, amazing in red and that cleavage! I just want to motorboat those big titties! Oh yeah! You don't just look like a snack, damn girl you the whole damn Happy Meal.

So far this episode all five of you have presented me with attire photographs for Denim and Evening Gown. I've been impressed. Paulina was also impressed with your choice of outfit.

However, as we move into the next attire categories, some of you failed to deliver photographs that Paulina, Christie and myself felt were worthy of inclusion at this high level.

Let's take a look at your Lingerie efforts.

Haley, stretching out that tall body of yours in the brightest of yellow. This is an incredibly sexy photograph and that yellow suits your skin tone and your hair color. This is the time to shine and you are shining!

Next up, Hunter. There are two things about your photograph worth mentioning. Number one, you look sexy as all fuck. No doubt about that. Any day of the week you would be onto a winner with that photo. But, number two, this is almost exactly the same photo as your denim shot. The only difference is you took your jeans off.

I'm not a fucking idiot, Hunter.

Olivia and Robin, you've both gone for quite different looks.

I love that you, Olivia, have taken this shot in the shower. I'm not quite sure why you would shower in a corset and stockings, but more power to you. Regardless, this photo makes my nipples hard. Well done.

You continue to impress.

Robin, what a sexy photograph! Looking back over your shoulder at the camera is a display of top notch modelling technique. It's a skill every model should have in her portfolio.

I'm going to make a special comment on your ass. HOLY FUCK. That is one nice ass.

Damn girl.

As soon as I stop sweating and dry my pits, we'll continue with the next round of photos.

Let's look at some legs. Mini Dress time, ladies.

Camille, I'm loving how you stick that booty out. For a white girl, you got some junk in that trunk.

Hunter! Holy shit, girl. You look like you're out on the prowl for men to devour. Those boots! That leather dress and those legs that look like two Sequoias ready to be chopped down with an ax!

Both of you are popping in these photographs.

Moving on to two of the hottest brunettes in the world today, Olivia and Robin.

The two of you prove that you can take glamorous photos not only in a studio, but also out pounding the pavement. Believe me ladies, I know all about being pounded on the pavement.

Both of you look like you have legs that go up to your armpits. Legs for days.

Damn, you some skinny bitches!

Regardless, the two of you have blown away the competition in Mini Dresses. Congratulations.

We've looked at Denim, Evening Gowns, Lingerie and Mini Dresses. One more UCC attire to go: Work Out.

This is an important category, because you have to be physical and workout to be successful in the UCC.

You've all trained with Christie. I've seen photos of you sweating it out in your spandex. But now is my chance to see you model and look sexy in spandex.

Bring it on!

I'm going to start with Camille and Robin.

Neither of you look like you're actually working out and sweating. But that's OK, this is a photoshoot. But some more energy would have been nice.

Camille, I get the impression you put your sweatpants on and then someone offered you a coffee and donut. You look happy and chilled out. Like I said, some energy would have been nice.

I get a bit more from you, Robin. But not a lot. Your belly looks so fucking tight. Oh, I wish I still had a belly like that. So smooth...so strong...mmm.

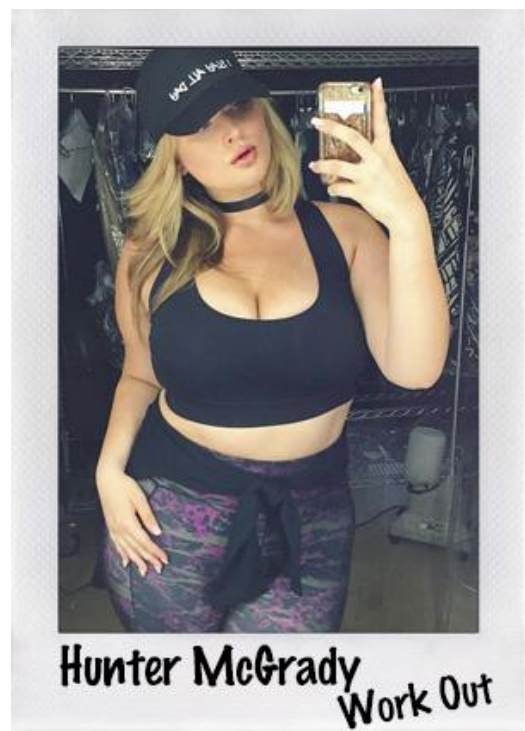

Moving on.

Hunter. This photo is a shade too Instagram for my liking.

Not professional enough. However, you do fill that outfit to capacity. I do love big tits when they are ready to just fall out of a lycra top.

Next time, I need to see you in a gym outfit that I can use to sell magazines and products. Not just big 'ol titties.

And that brings me to the end of this episode's non-swimsuit photographs.

I have five girls standing in front of me. Hunter, Camille, Robin, Olivia and Haley.

Two of you will be leaving the Model House today.

I take no pleasure in sending anyone home today. The five of you are five of the fiercest, sexiest, smartest, talented, dangerous women I have had the pleasure of passing judgement on.

But. Only three girls can continue onto the grand final.

I have no doubt that the girls I send home today will one day be in the UCC and fighting for Death By Bikini. I have that much faith in all of you.

But. As I said, only three of you can continue.

Therefore, I'm sad to say, the two girls leaving tonight are...

Camille Kostek and Haley Kahil.

Ladies, I'm sorry but the other three were just that little bit better and they all delivered photographs in every attire category.

Camille and Haley, please pack your bags and head home.
