submit your event!

There are two ways for events to make it into the newsletter: I see them online or the organizer/host submits them. But I can only spend so much time online before my eyeballs fall out of my head so submitting your event is the only guaranteed way your event is in the newsletter.

Events submitted via DM, tagging in a post or story or by email will NOT be considered as submitted.

The ONLY accepted form of submission is to use the form. This keeps everything organized and in one place.

There are deadlines for a reason and any events submitted AFTER the deadline (the Thursday prior to your event by 3 pm EST) will NOT be accepted. It's nothing personal, I promise! Adhering to these strict deadlines keeps the newsletter sustainable (and ensures it goes out on time).

thank you! love ya!

Hey, hi, hello!

Pride month may be officially over, but we're queer year-long here. I hope everyone who works in the service industry (and public facing jobs in general) have been able to get some rest and reprieve.

There are 372 events listed for this week and range from free community gatherings, exclusive ticketed events, lively parties, sober spaces, COVID-conscious, virtual, arts & crafts workshops, sports meet-ups and more!

The newsletter has got you covered. I truly feel confidence that there is something for everyone (at least one event, but hopefully more). I'd say that satisfaction guaranteed or your money back, but the newsletter is FREE*! (--;

Always free except if you become an angel (paid subscriber) ... but only do so if you have financial means!!!!!!*

If you haven't done so already, please follow queer on the street on instagram or share the newsletter with a friend!

PS → Don't forget! Depending on your email provider, you may see "message clipped" at the bottom of this email. Click "show full message" to ensure you're seeing the full newsletter.

Have a wonderful week! Talk to you all soon!

All my love,
Nic (they/them)
